

From R. V. Jones, M.A., Ph.D., Professor of Classics, Acadia.

"His ardor, his fine perception of thought and its expression, his enthusiasm in the study of the Ancient Classics, I cannot soon forget. The life and culture thus gained he put into the subject in which he himself gave instruction. He has clearly shown us what instruments of culture Elocution and Music are when effectively and thoroughly taught."

From C. W. Roscoe, M.A., Inspector of Schools and Member of Board of Governors, Acadia University.

"I have had abundant opportunity to become acquainted with the work of Mr. Shaw. The results of his work I regard as invaluable. He thoroughly understands his subjects, and his methods of teaching are such as produce the best results. Several teachers whom he instructed have done excellent work in the schools under my inspection: As one of the Board of Governors, I fear it will be almost impossible to fill the place made vacant by Mr. Shaw's resignation. He possesses the power to control young people so as to secure their attention and respect, and he leaves the college generally beloved by the students."

From J. B. Oakes, M.A., Principal, Horton Collegiate Academy.

"As an Elocutionist and as a teacher of Elocution and Voice, I regard him as thoroughly qualified. We have never had his equal."

From L. E. Wortman, M.A., Principal, Union Seminary, St. John, N.B.

"He is a man of much talent, a capable, enthusiastic and successful teacher. I have great confidence in expressing the opinion that he will discharge with tact, energy and success the duties of any position that he may accept."

"Mr. Shaw is a master of the art he professes to teach, and his lectures are characterized by a thoroughness and spirit which inspire in his pupils both respect and enthusiasm."—Trinity University Review, March, 1893.

From Mr. E. B. Warman, the eminent Lecturer, Author and Reader.

MY DEAR MR. SHAW,—Judging from what I saw and heard the morning I visited your school, I have no hesitancy in saying that I was pleased with your methods, pleased with the results, and especially pleased to meet a teacher of Elocution who could talk in a natural tone of voice. Wishing you God-speed, I am, etc.,

EDWARD B. WARMAN,
Chicago, Ill.
