TWO FARMS, (both in one square lot.) on Handley Mount, Wilmot, Nova-Scotia, 1 1/2 miles from the new wharf, and 2 miles from Gates' wharf.

The Farms front on the main road, and possess a beautiful view of the surrounding country, and New-Brunswick across the Bay. The largest farm contains 250 acres more or less, of excellent soil, and first rate pasture lands on the Mount, a large convenient apartment well finished, a large barn and shed, and upwards of 50 Apple, Plum, and Cherry Trees. Two streams of water run through both the farms near the houses, which unite into one stream, they are near enough to unite up during winter, and are admirably situated for either Grist or Saw Mills. The small Farm contains 112 acres, more or less, with an orchard of 100 Apple Trees, some of them grafted, and secured by a ditch and dyke. There are on this farm two dwelling Houses, one of which, and a shed for cattle and a barn, are newly put up. Both Farms are mostly cleared of woods except about 100 acres of land and soft wood, well timbered, and the whole is well fenced in. The Farms can be sold or let together or separately. Possession of the large one can be given on the first of April next, and the small one can be entered upon immediately. Liberal terms of payment will be granted on good security, and the situation is in every respect most desirable for any persons wishing to possess an excellent Farm in one of the most pleasant parts of Nova-Scotia.
