MANY JUNE BRIDES

First Summery June Day Brings Good Crop of Interesting Nuptial Functions.

Today was fixed upon by many happy couples to make their entry into the ranks of matrimony and it was therefore noted with joy that the day is bright, warm and sunny. Both morning and afternoon coaches with fluttering white ribbons were to be seen passing to and fro bearing guests and principals to these happy events. The day could not have been better chosen as it is really about the first that has had the "leaky June" appearance.

Schofield-Inches

A society wedding which has been anticipated with interest, takes place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon, when Miss Mary Kingsbury Inches, daughter of Dr. P. R. Inches, becomes the wife of Harold Cowan Schofield.

The church has been prettily decorated for the occasion, and the ceremony will be performed by the pastor, Rev. David Lang, assisted by Rev. A. Gordon Dickie. The bride, who will be given away by her father, will be wearing in an artistic creation of white silk with trimmings of lace and long veil caught with orange blossoms, and will carry a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Constance Inches, the bride's sister, will be maid-of-honor, and will wear a dainty gown of blue, with hat of corresponding color.

The bridesmaids will be Miss Louise McMillan and Miss Winifred Barker. Both will be costumed in white, with hats to correspond, and having just a touch of pink. Like the maid-of-honor, they will carry bouquets of pale pink roses.

Paul Longley will act as best man. The ushers will be Henry Stetson, Henry Schofield, Kenneth, Cyrus, and Errol Inches.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, and after luncheon the newly married couple will leave by the C. P. R. for a wedding trip to New York and other American cities.

The bride's travelling costume is a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with hat of corresponding color, and will carry a shower bouquet of white carnations.

The maid-of-honor will be gowned in white silk trimmed with ribbon and lace and will carry pink roses.

The little flower girl's costume will also be of white silk with trimmings of ribbon and lace and she will carry a basket of sweet peas.

Luncheon will be served at the conclusion of the ceremony and the young couple will leave by the C. P. R. for Montreal, where they will make their honeymoon.

Among the numerous wedding gifts may be mentioned a beautiful cut glass fruit bowl from the bride's Sunday school class in Queen Square Methodist church, and a substantial cheque from the groom's mother.

While the bride's many friends will regret her removal from the city, they unite in wishing her every happiness in her new home in the Canadian metropolis.

Our Bargain Sale of Handsomely Tailored Garments offers many inducements to ladies planning summer trips.

JUST A WORD OR TWO, LADIES, by way of reminder about the sale of our ready-made clothing stock, which is proceeding briskly from day to day by reason of first-class goods at prices very considerably below the ordinary. Women with even the commonest traits of thrift and shopping instinct see at a glance that our garments are most unusually good value; the materials are modish and the models coincident with correct patterns as sent out from New York and Paris.

We explained some time ago the why and wherefore of this sweeping clearance—bad weather and slow sales—but since the days have improved some, and as summer trips grow nearer, a decided boom has developed. Early selections are therefore advised.

These garments are sold at low prices for no fault; it's purely and simply a matter of bargains because of the backward weather.
