Mrs. W. E. Foster Succeeds Mrs. M. B. Edwards as President

Secretary of State Addresses Ladies On Matters in Election Campaign.

Speaking at a meeting of Liberal women of the city held under the auspices of the Liberal Women's Club last evening in the Natural History Society rooms, Hon. Dr. W. E. Foster. Secretary of State in the King Government declared that the Government would, if returned and if the revenue of the country remained at its present buoyant level, reduce the income tax. He reviewed the issues of the present campaign, paying especial attention to the tariff, the state of prosperity of the country, the Courtenay Bay development, the West Indies agreement and the railway situation.

The meeting was well attended, the hall being nearly filled, and the speaker was well received.

At the meeting Mrs. M. B. Edwards withdrew from the active duties of president and was elected honorary president. Mrs. W. E. Foster was elected president and Mrs. William Pugsley, first vice-president. Steps were taken for complete organization of wards, plans for which will be matured at a meeting to be held at the latter end of the week.

The meeting voiced its appreciation of the interest and splendid work of Mrs. Edwards during her tenure of the office of president.

In opening his address, Hon. Dr. Foster spoke of the women's viewpoint. Men and women were equal in voting and had an equal interest in the affairs of the day such as the cost of living, the railway question and the tariff, he said. They cast 50 per cent of the vote and thus had a 50 per cent interest in its outcome.

Had Been Held Since January Charged With Murder at

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 6—After being in jail since January, charged with the murder of his wife, Sarah, Duncan Gammon was released from the county jail today on instructions of Attorney-General John Douglas under nolle prosequi proceedings.

The mysterious disappearance of his English wife caused suspicion to be directed to Gammon last year when a letter from a relative of the accused in Pictou county disclosed the fact that Gammon's people there believed the young war bride to have departed for England, whereas communications established the fact that she had never arrived at the home of her parents. This was last September and Chief of Police Palmer had Gammon watched and later arrested on the charge of the state of the state of the state of the charge of the state of the st
