Over the Wire and Through the Mail

Some of our most successful traders are people we never see. These days it is not necessary to go to your broker's office to buy or sell stocks. The business and the enquiries we receive by telephone, telegraph and mail constitute a very large portion of our business. Our out-of-town investor is, therefore, on an equality with our nearest customer. We can buy or sell his stocks and securities immediately he makes up his mind to act. All purchases, large or small, can be made for cash or on our Partial Payment Plan. May we send you our explanatory booklet No. 122.
