PREDICTS RUTH WILL BE SOLD
Boston Writer Intimates "Babe" Will Be Found in Yankee Uniform.

New York, Dec. 26.—"Babe" Ruth in a Yankee uniform next year, is a prediction of Paul Shannon, a baseball writer of Boston, who, presumably, is as close to the situation in the Hub as any critic of the city. Unfortunately for New York fans, it has been impossible to get the least verification of such a report.

Harry H. Frazee, when seen today, refused to comment on the sale of Ruth. "I refused $100,000 cash for 'Babe' last year, before he became the great home-run attraction he proved at the end of the year. There is nothing I have in my mind to do with the right price, of course—but what do you think, now, I'd take for Ruth? Do you believe any body in baseball would be foolish enough to give what I would have to get to have the fury of the Boston fans if I were to let him go?"

Shannon intimates that Frazee intends to dispose of Ruth because "Babe" has been somewhat of a disturbing element. He overshadows the other players to such an extent that the best of them seldom get a mention. Furthermore, though he is under contract for two more years, Ruth, it is said, has issued an ultimatum to the club, asking double his 1919 salary.

It is known that Col. Rupert and Huston, of the Yankees, offered $100,000 cash for Ruth last July. This was not an advertising stunt in any way, for no mention was made of the fact at the time. If it is true that Frazee intends to put Ruth on the market, he will surely consider New York first. Frazee is a good business man. He realizes that by playing Ruth in New York he would reap a richer harvest as a visiting club than he could hope to do in any other city.

FATAL SHOOTING IN A MONTREAL HOUSE.
Montreal, Dec. 26.—Patrick Leahy of Beaulieu street, a returned soldier, was shot and killed in a fight early this morning at 26 Demontigny street, west, and Victor Dupuis and his wife were later arrested. The man will be charged with murder while his wife is at present held as a witness.
Dupuis and Leahy were friends.
Some indications that an agreement might be reached in the negotiations for peace between Estonia and Soviet Russia are reported.
