The Italians are showing great uneasiness over the unsettled Adriatic prob-lem as Premier Orlando insists that it must be settled before the Italian parliament meets on June 18. The Council of Four considered the Adriatic proble yesterday, but no decision was reached.

A general drive all along the line fo r a speedy comp Germany has been noticeable for the last two days. In French circles there is a growing conviction that Germany will not sign the peace treaty, and this probably accounts for the haste, as delay, it is gen erally conceded, makes signing by Germany less likely.
