

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IS YOUR LAXATIVE

Best Liver and Bowel Cleanser and Stomach Regulator Known

Get a 10-cent box.
Put aside—just once—the Salts, Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters which merely force a passageway through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage organs and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.
A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have headache, biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

SALVATION ARMY CABARET
Free Drinks With Lunch and Songs
Served Every Night

New York, Jan. 20.—Major Wallace W. Winchell, superintendent of the Salvation Army Industrial Home in Jersey City, was just getting ready to go to bed when the idea struck him of starting a Salvation Army cafe and cabaret.
"I've got converted bartenders and cabaret singers at the home," he said to Mrs. Winchell, "and I know that they would be glad to help."

Right after breakfast the major called up a lawyer for the Public Service Gas Company and rented the company's abandoned office. Then he sent a half-dozen able-bodied men to the place. By nightfall they had built a bar, forty-two feet long, for the converted bar tenders. A stove was set up, tables were put in and as soon as a converted sign painter had completed his task for the day, two panes of ground glass were put in the front door, one of which bore this strange device:

"S. A. Cafe and Cabaret."
The other side:
"Free Drinks With Every Lunch."
At its opening old young men and young old men slouched in. Many shivering in cast-off summer clothing. Every body was hungry and all agreed the major's oxtail soup was good.
The major expects that his converted cabaret artists will sing up-to-date songs with Salvation Army words.

BRYAN IN REVIVAL CHOIR
With His Wife, Secretary Drops in on "Billy" Sunday at Pittsburgh

Secretary of State William J. Bryan, and Mrs. Bryan appeared unexpectedly the other night at the Tabernacle, in Pittsburgh, where "Billy" Sunday, a baseball evangelist, was holding a revival. A policeman refused to admit them as the Tabernacle was crowded. After Mr. Bryan had identified himself they were admitted through the stage entrance. They found seats among the choir. Both were standing with hymn books in their hands, singing a gospel song with the choir, when they were discovered.

"I am an admirer of Mr. Sunday," said Mr. Bryan, "and I believe that he is accomplishing a great deal of good. This is the first opportunity I have had to see him in action, and I have enjoyed it very much. I am making a train connection, en route from Kansas to Washington. We arrived at 6.10 this evening, and had four hours to spend here."

Secretary Bryan wanted to meet the evangelist, but declined to permit him to be disturbed. The meeting was under way when he and his wife arrived, and he had hoped it would be over in time for him to interview Mr. Sunday before leaving for the capital. Mr. Sunday was calling for converts to "hit the sawdust trail" when the secretary of state and his wife were leaving.

PASTOR CALLS HIS FLOCK HYPOCRITES AND THEN RESIGNS

Rev. Mr. Bullard Worried Of Vain Fight

HITS AT "DANCING CLIQUE"

East Orange Clergyman Tells of Gambling By Boys and of Unchristian Spirit Towards Strangers—Makes Accusation of Deceit

Men cannot tango with the devil and walk with God. When they insist on doing so it is time for their pastor to hold their souls up to the light.
This is the way the Rev. Charles B. Bullard of East Orange, N. J., epitomized his attitude toward the congregation of the Elmwood Presbyterian church at East Orange to whom he resigned his pastorate with the explanation that he did not wish to minister to hypocrites and pharisees, says the New York Sun.

Mr. Bullard has been pastor of the Elmwood church for fourteen years. He is a chaplain of the Sons of the American Revolution, an alumnus of the Union Theological seminary, and is one of the best known Presbyterian preachers in the neighborhood of New York. His retirement from the Elmwood pulpit did not surprise friends who knew the drift of things in the congregation, but the pastor's spirited method of taking leave has caused a sensation in East Orange.

He told a reporter for The Sun just why he made up his mind to leave the Elmwood church. The Rev. Mr. Bullard is sixty years old, but looks younger. He is tall and straight, has smiling brown eyes, and talks with a young man's enthusiasm.

"I have resigned," he said, "because I will not tolerate the un-Christian words and deeds of a faction of the congregation. They have turned a chill and unfriendly eye upon newcomers who did not belong to their set."

"They froze out worthy families who wanted to ally themselves with the Elmwood church. They lacked Christian fellowship. The real reason the pews of Elmwood are not better filled is because of the wranglings and jealousies of a clique."

"This clique introduced dancing in the parish house. I have been a minister of liberal mind, but I will not tolerate tangoes and turkey trots or any form of dancing in connection with church activities. If people want to dance outside the church, that is their own affair, but the Presbyterian church forbids such dancing as I speak of. The danger of making it a part of the recreation of the church is emphasized by a recent happening which touched, though it did not involve, the social life of our young people. I refer to the downfall of a young man and the disgrace of a young woman."

Boys Gambled, He Says
"The faction I refer to permitted young boys to gamble, permitted lotteries to be held, and instead of taking the decent and proper attitude toward me when I protested, I was defied in my just authority, when I tried to shield the fair name of the church."

"Members of the faction worked against me in an unmanly and unchristian way in a deliberate and systematic attempt to oust me from the pastorate. They started a pretended investigation as to whether or not the people wanted a change of pastor. They stated that 95 per cent of the people wanted a change. They violated Christian courtesy as well as the prerogatives of sessions and presbytery under Presbyterian order."

"They used offensive expressions to me on various occasions. They told me that my protests against gambling had given a blow to the church from which it could not recover for several years. They misrepresented my words and acts utterly and unjustifiably. If what I had said gave offence it was because I had

H. PRICE WEBBER CLOSES THIRTY-EIGHT THEATRICAL SEASON

Has Been 41 Weeks Traveling—
Next Season to Open on Easter
Monday

Morning Advertiser, Oxford county, Me., January 9:—

In returning thanks to the people of Norway in his speech at the Opera House last night, H. Price Webber spoke of the very liberal patronage he had received for the last thirty-five years and paid a just tribute to the memory of Major General George L. Beal and Fredland Howe, two of our best citizens, who were prominent in helping Mr. Webber, when under adversity in his earlier days of management. The large audience present cordially endorsed Mr.

Webber's timely and graceful remarks and were pleased at his announcement of a return visit next season. He thanked the editor of the Advertiser for courtesies received and inventively mentioned the editor's fitness to be Prime Minister of Guanama, the audience thoroughly agreeing in the remark.

Mr. Webber's company closed their season of forty-one weeks and left for their homes this morning. The next season will open on Easter Monday and will be Mr. Webber's 39th consecutive year.

Norway people told Mr. Webber before the show that owing to our shoe factories being closed down just now that it was thought he would not have as large an audience as usual, but he says there were more dollars received from the house than the Norway manager thought there would be people present. As a showman and as a man H. Price Webber has a big hold on the people that has lasted well on towards a half century.

Almost Like Magic (Toilet Tips).
Advocates of the electric needle for removing stubborn growths now concede that a simple paste made with powdered delatone and water is fully as efficacious and is devoid of pain, while the cost is trifling. The delatone paste is left on the hairy surface about two minutes and when it is rubbed off all traces of hair vanish. Washing leaves the skin soft, smooth and spotless. Be careful to see that it is delatone you get or you may be disappointed with the result.

Feel Out of Sorts?

It's a good idea to look for the cause!

One common, but often unsuspected cause is tea and coffee drinking. Yet some persons seem able to get along with tea or coffee—at least for a time. But when headachy, bilious days come; breakfast or some other meal doesn't taste good; and the day's work goes wrong. (Ever feel that way?)—then it's time to find out for sure if tea and coffee are causing the trouble in your case.

There's a subtle, poisonous drug, "caffeine," in tea and coffee that interferes with the normal functions of body, brain and nerves, and has a lot to do with one's comfort and progress.

Suppose for a test you try the simple expedient of quitting tea and coffee and using well-made —a pure food-drink made of choice wheat. It has a delightful, snappy flavor, and is absolutely free from caffeine or any other drug.

POSTUM

After ten days or two weeks you will be able to decide whether to go back to tea and coffee troubles, or stick to Postum and peace and comfort.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular Postum—must be well boiled.

Instant Postum—doesn't require boiling, but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in an ordinary cup of hot water and adding cream and sugar to taste.

Grocers everywhere sell both kinds.
