(London Daily Express.)
The members of the Irish Club are genial, jovial people, perhaps because they are not all Irishmen. Also, perhaps, because politics and religion are barred from discussion. Lieut. Colonel Grant Morden, M. P., presiding at their house dinner on Wednesday, made an amusing speech.

"They tell me," he said, "that Irish emigrants to New York who can read and write are put in the police force. And those who can't, go into Congress."

A Monthly Income for your Widow

A privilege applicable to all Imperial Life policies permits the assured to specify that the proceeds of his insurance shall, on maturity be payable in monthly, quarterly, half-yearly or yearly instalments for 20 years certain, and so long thereafter as the beneficiary named shall live.

While in the calculation of the instalments a definite rate of interest is guaranteed, such payments will be increased by sharing in the interest which the Company earns in excess of this guaranteed rate.

Therefore, by means of an Imperial policy you can provide a definite, dependable, regular income to care for your widow as long as she lives, and for your children until all of them are at least old enough to be self-supporting.

Many other advantages of this valuable privilege are explained in our booklet "Safeguard Your Legacy." Write for a free copy to-day.
