GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Hair Becomes Charming, Wavy, Lustrous and Thick in Few Moments

Every Bit of Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out

For a few cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderrine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderrine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderrine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderrine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

SEARCH FOR BANDITS STILL UNSUCCESSFUL

Believed That They Are Headed Towards Prince Albert—No Trace Yet of McKay's Body

Prince Albert, Sask., Nov. 22—The evidence tonight is strongly to the effect that the Steep Creek bandits, Carmel and St. Germain, are in the area between the north and south Saskatchewan rivers, about eighteen miles east of Prince Albert, probably coming toward the city.

Three residents of the district have been located who saw men who were apparently trying to keep out of sight as much as possible. One in the part of the south Saskatchewan river where the body of McKay was said to have been put into the stream was dynamited today but no trace of the body was discovered. A stone which it was said had been attached to the body to sink it was discovered.

It showed that it had been tied to the body by a rope made of strips of cloth of the inner coat worn by McKay. Desormeaux, the boy who was forced to help in the disposal of the body, said that this had been done and he took the searchers to a place on the river bank where the bandits had set up a stake to mark the place of the disposal of the body. Investigation of the place where the McKay car was buried in the bank shows that a most complete job was done. The wheels had been chopped off with an axe and the vehicle was so completely concealed that it would be most difficult to find it. The axe and a shovel were found beside the car.

There is a suspicion that the body of James Suger, the farmer who is supposed to have been murdered by the bandits, may be under the car.

Two more digouts have been found further down the river. They are connected by a tunnel, but bear no traces of having been occupied and there was no material of any kind in them.
