PREMIER FOSTER ASKS GOVERNMENT FOR A DECLARATION OF POLICY

Understood That Government Has Indicated That Toronto, Ont., Oct. 24—Twenty mil-Only "General Instructions" Can be Given Reparding Use of Atlantic Ports, But that "Other Things Being Equal" Canadian Ports Will Get Preference—Feeling That This is Not Satisfac-

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 24—Hon. W. E. Foster, Premier of New Brunswick, now in Ottawa, is keeping in close touch with the developments in connection with the debate on the Grand Trunk Bill. His chief interest is to know how it will affect the prosperity of the Port of St. John, and other ports of New Brunswick, and to get assurances from the governnent of as positive a character as possible that Canadian Atlantic ports shall be used as much as they can be.

The government, it is believed, indicates that only general instructions of that character can be given to the new board to be appointed if it is to have the freedom as to policy and management that has been promised. Other things being equal, however, the Canadian ports will get the preference.

This, it is thought here, will hardly satisfy public opinion in the Maritime Provinces, and it is pointed out that Canadians in general should not be satisfied with it. The suggestion has been made that prompt steps should be taken—especially by the federal members from the Maritime Provinces—to get a clear and concise declaration of the government's policy in the

HANDKERCHIEF IN EVIDENCE

AGAINST LONG Montpelier, Oct. 24-A handkerchief Montpelier, Oct. 24—A handkercher similar to the one tied around the neck of Mrs. Lusina Broadwell, when her body was found in a garden at Barre, on May 4, was given to George A. Long last February by Edward Barron, of Springfield (Mass.), according to Barron's testimony today in the trial of Long for testimony today in the trial of Long for murder. Barron testified that some time later, Barron testified that some time later, when he was at his sister's home in Springfield, J. R. Wood, of Boston, a detective, showed him a picture of Long, and that witness exclaimed: "that's the guy I loaned my handkerchief to."

A laundry manager had previously testified that the handkerchief found on the body bore the same laundry marks as that on clothing left at the laundry by Barron in February.

THE pleasure of choosing suitable hosiery need not be marred by uncertainty as to the lasting qualities either of color or material. Although Penmans now means everything in hosiery that the toilette of the smartly-gowned woman dictates, there is still the underlying quality that has been associated with the name Penmans for generations. For daintiness without extravagance-simply remember the name-Penmans.
