Mrs. Letter and the Misses Leiter, who have taken Mossley Hall for the season.

Lady Curzon is much run down by the trying and debilitating climate of India, and it is believed that a stay at so bracing and invigorating a resort as Bar Harbor, where one is able to enjoy the breezes of both sea and mountain simultaneously, will set her up sufficiently to enable her to subsequently rejoin her husband at Calcutta in sufficiently strong health to admit of her remaining with him in India during the balance of his term of office as viceroy.

Mrs. Letter and her daughters are making elaborate preparations for Lady Curzon's stay at Bar Harbor, and planning entertainments in her honor. It will be her first visit to the United States since her marriage. Lord Curzon will not accompany her, for he is debarred by statute from leaving India as long as he continues to fill his office of viceroy.

A WINNIPEG INSTANCE.

The city of Winnipeg, according to the Morning Telegram, saves a large amount annually by lighting its streets and municipal buildings. The was $14,550.52. "This." says the Tele gram, "means a great saving for the city, as the 78,601 street lights used during the year cost only an average without allowing anything for the civic buildings. The lowest price ever offered by contractors for this service was 29 cents per light per night on 10 years agreement, and 371-2 cents per night for three years' contract. At the lowest rate the city would have had to pay $10,000, and at the higher figure $14,000 more than the service costs at present, with te incandescent lights thrown in."

THE SYNOD.

Bishop Kingdon Presented With an Address This Morning.

Summary of Yesterday's and Today's Proceedings-A Large Attendance of Members.

The 34th session of the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton began yesterday with the celebration of Holy Com-munion in Trinity church at 8 p'clock in the morning. Three well-attenmunion in Trinity church at 8 p'clock in the morning. Three well-attended sessions were held during the day and a large amount of business was carried through. Some interesting discussions characterized the day's proceedings, the most important being that on the proposed change to blennial sessions, which was favored by the synod.

After prayer led by his lordship.

by the synod.

After prayer, led by his lordship, the roll of the clergy and of the lay representatives was called by Rev. Canon O. S. Newnham, secretary of synod. Thirty-five of the 117 certified delegates answering to their names, the secretary certified that a quorum was present. A larger number will probably be in attendance today.

probably be in attendance today.

On motion of Dean Partridge, the proceedings as printed were taken as read and confirmed.

The bishop appointed the nominating committee, consisting of the following clerical and lay members of the synod from each deanery:

Chatham—Clerical, Archdeacon Forsyth. Lay, Hon. Judge Wilkinson.

Fredericton—Clerical, Rev. H, Montgomery. Lay, C. E. A. Simonds, Kingston—Clerical, Rev. S. Neales. Lay, W. Tyng Peters.

gomery. Lay, C. E. A. Simonds, Kingston—Clerical, Rev. S. Neales. Lay, W. Tyng Peters.
Shediac—Clerical, Rev. E. B. Hoppy. G. Lay, R. W. Hewson.
St. Andrews—Clerical, Rev. J. W. Millidge. Lay, W. C. H. Grimmer.
St. John—Clerical, Rev. W. O. Raymond. Lay, J. Roy Campbell.
Woodstock — Clerical, Archdeacon Neales. Lay, G. N. A. Burnham. His Lordship Bishop Kingdon delivered his address to the synod, referring to the clergy who have died during the year, to the return of peace, to the King's illness and to matters which will be dealt with by the synod. Various reports were submitted and notices of motion given, and the evening session reports from the clergy of the various arishes were received.

TODAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Synod resumed business this morning at 10 o'clock after prayers and the roll call. The attendance was larger than at the opening session. After the reading of the minutes of yesterday's meetings Ven. Archdeacon Neales moved the suspension of the rules of order and this being carried, he and A. C. Fairweather, on behalf of the synod, presented his lordship with an address of welcome and congratulation, the members of the synod standing meanwhile and joining in three hearty cheers as the reading finished.

The address was handsomely bound in Morocco, decorated with gilt and bearing on the cover this inscription: "Address presented to the Bishop of Fredericton by the Diocesan Synod on the 21st anniversary of his lordship's consecration. July, 1902."

The address within, richly engrossed on veilum, was as follows:

"To the Right Reverend the Lord TODAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

To the Right Reverend the Lord

Bishop of Fredericton: We, the clergy and lay representawe, the clergy and lay representatives of your diocese at present assembled in synod, desire to tender to your lordship our hearty welcome to you on your return to the diocese after your brief absence in seeking a renewal of your strength since your protracted illness.

illness.

"We wish also to express to your lord-ship our sincere congratulations on the 21st anniversary of your consecration.

"May the Good Shepherd and Bishop of Souls still keep you in His loving care, and give you needed strength to carry on for fixing years to come your arduous and faithful labors in this dicese to the upbuilding of His church and to His eternal giory."

Signed by the several clerical and lay delegates to the synod.

His lordship was so deenly moved by ering his voice he briefly expressed his heartfelt thanks. No one, he said, was more conscious of failure in the past than he, and it was a great satisfaction to him to feel that he had not only the confidence of his diocese, but also their sympathy and affection. He would never forget their kindness and hoped it would inspire him to better work in the days to come.

The report from the board of education, submitted by Rev. Canon Richardson told of the resignation of G. O. D. Otty, A. C. Fairweather and F. J. G. Knowlton from the board on account of the refusal of the executive to grant them $8,000 for the erection of a school in St. John. The negotiations which the board was conducting with Jas. F. Robertson regarding the acquirement by the synod of the Rothesay school for boys have not been completed. They recommended that the synod procure the property if satisfactory terms could be obtained and that the board of education be given full power in the matter.

The committee on prizes for the girls' school reported through his lordship that through the fault of London booksellers the prizes did not reach the schools in time.

On motion of Ven. Archdeacon Neales after the suspension of the rules of order, it was decided to adjourn at 12 o'clock for the purpose of allowing the rectors and lay representatives of self-supporting parishes to meet at that time.

Rev. Canon Richardson gave notice that the delegates were invited by the ladies of the C. of E. Institute to luncheon at one o'clock and that a phetograph of the synod would be taken immediately afterwards.

opinion against the grant, he considered that it was his duty to abide by that decision unless it was overruled by Synod.

Judge Hanington's motion was seconded by Rev. A. F. B. Burtt of Shediac, who strongly supported the giving of a grant to the school as had been requested.

His lordship explained that the action of the board had been taken upon the direct advice of the chancellor. He would be glad to accede to the request if it could be done.

G. O. D. Otty thought it was discourteous to the chancellor to refer his decision to a committee, and he moved as an amendment that the board of education be instructed to make the grant of $50 this year, subject to the opinion of the chancellor. This was seconded by F. J. G. Knowiton.

Judge Hanington thereupon withdrew his motion in favor of the amendment.

Rev. L. A. Hoyt, Rev. Scovil Neales and others opposed the grant on several grounds, and before the vote could be taken the hour of 12 o'clock arrived and Synod adjourned until 3 o'clock.

The session of Synod this evening will consist of a service in Trinity church, at which Rev. Canon Newnham will preach.

After the adjournment of Synod at 12 o'clock a meeting was held of rectors and lay representatives of self-supporting parishes to consider the adoption of some system of opportionment on behalf of the diocesan mission fund.

fund.

Ven. Archdeacon Neales was elected to the chair and brought the subject before the meeting in his opening address. A prolonged and vigorous discussion followed on various methods, but up to one o'clock no decision was reached, and the meeting adjourned until two o'clock of the following day. After adjournment the delegates were charmingly entertained at luncheon by the ladies of the institute in the lower rooms of the school building.

CANADIAN DINNER

A Touching Letter From Queen Alexandra

Alexandra.

LONDON, July 1.—Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, the Canadian high commissioner in London, presided to night at the Canadian Dominion dinner. Among the 600 guests present were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier; Sir John Gordon Sprigg, the premier of Cape Colony; the Right Hon. E. Barton, the premier of the Commonwealth of Australia; all the Canadian statesmen new in London, the Earl of Minto, the governor general of Canada; the Duke of Argyli, former governor general of Canada; the Earl of Aberdeen, late governor general of Canada, and all the agents-general in London. Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal read a letter from Queen Alexandra, in which Her Majesty explained how deeply touched King Edward had been at the outburst of sympathy for him throughput the Empire, and in which she added her thanks to those who had joined her in prayers for the King's recovery.
