HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD CONSCIENCE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7, Piccadilly, London, dated 6th June, 1851.

"I have tried your Pills, and they have cured me of a disorder which has been long and obstinately resisted. I have since tried them on several other persons, and they have all been cured."

These Pills are sold by all respectable Druggists and Chemists. Price, 10 Cents per Box.

National Loan Fund LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

EMPLOYED BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT. CAPITAL, £2,000,000. PROFITS, £2,500,000.

This Society was established by an Act of Parliament in 1843, and has since that time been successfully operating on the principles of mutual insurance.

The Society is now open for business, and is ready to receive applications for policies. The rates of premium are very low, and the benefits are very liberal.

For further particulars, apply to the Society's Office, in the Strand, London.

FARM FOR SALE.

A VERY valuable and well situated FARM, in the Parish of Springfield, (King's County), Ireland, containing 60 Acres in the whole.

The Farm is situated on one side by the River, and is well calculated both for farming purposes and a public establishment. There is on the place, a large and convenient Dwelling House, in good repair; also, a small house, suitable for a tenant, a Blacksmith's Shop, and two large Barns, capable of containing 60000 of any kind of produce; and plenty of good water near the house.

The Farm and Establishment will be found on examination to be well worth the attention of any person desiring to purchase, and the produce of the Farm will be a good security for the money.

For terms of payment, and for a further plan, apply to the Society's Office, in the Strand, London.

THE OUTCAST AND HER CHILD.

My story is not a new one, and I have told it before. It is a story of love and sacrifice, and of the power of true friendship.

The story is a simple one, and yet it is full of interest and pathos. It tells of a woman who has been abandoned by her lover, and of the child she has born in consequence.

The story is a beautiful one, and it is well worth reading. It is a story of love and sacrifice, and of the power of true friendship.

For further particulars, apply to the Society's Office, in the Strand, London.
