MOB IN OMAHA
WAS JUSTIFIED,
SAYS WILLIAMSMississippi Senator Upholds Lynching of Negro When Mr. Borah Denounces it.Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—During the debate on the League of Nations in the Senate today Senator William Edgar Borah, Republican, of Idaho, bitterly assailed the use of mob violence, referring specifically to the lynching of a negro and the rioting to Omaha, Neb.Senator John Sharp Williams, Democrat, of Mississippi, defended the Omaha mob, asserting that lynching was justified when an attack had been made on a white woman by either a white or a black."I would surrender him (the attacker of a white woman) to the first crowd that came to get him," the senator from Mississippi declared.Senator Borah deplored all lawlessness as evidenced in lynchings, bomb outings and seditious propaganda, and declared that persons in responsible positions were advocating doctrines which he regarded as inimical to American interests. He referred to the Omaha riot as "another fearful lynching in as orderly a community as you could find in the country," however, he said, manifestations of lawlessness and disregard of American institutions had not been confined to any one class or to any one community.Deep Seated Disease.
"They have been one continued manifestation," he said. "It is not a mere surface indication. It is a disease, deep seated. It is at war with everything we have heretofore believed to be characteristic of American government."There must be an arousing of public sentiment and a feeling on the part of the people that these conditions cannot be permitted."While some men are digging away with a pickaxe at the foundations of the government, there are those in responsible places seeking to undermine and destroy the principles of our existence.""My idea of calling attention to the discontent and the disrespect for law and order and for our established policies is that we are losing faith in our system of government. America is no longer the America we have known and loved. Why not admit it and set about to redress it?""Americans heretofore have believed that lawlessness was not necessary to secure their desires and that American sovereignty should not be impaired.
Now thousands of people would reach their aims through riot, bloodshed and disorder. Thousands of others believe we should no longer be free from foreign alliances, but subject to a foreign combination.""It is not too late to restore law and order and to retain our sovereignty. There is just one remedy for this situation—a complete renaissance of Americanism, a rebaptism of the old national spirit."Would Gordon's Lynchings.
Senator Williams answered Senator Borah and declared that the lynchings were the attempt at attacks on white women by negroes."I will go in the pathways of peace as far as any man," he said. "I would be willing to arbitrate almost anything except outrage on a white woman by a black or white. I would surrender him as a criminal beyond the pale to the first crowd that came to get him. The conduct of the criminal as Omaha deprives me of all inclination and power to say one word against the crowd that captured the criminal and punished the crime. Race is greater than law now and then, and protection of women transcends all law, human and divine.""This miserable beast in Omaha paid a just debt for his crime. When it comes to violating innocent women it is no time to go to court. But here we have men pleading for law and order while helpless women are being treated by beasts as they please, and yet these same men don't want any international law. The senator speaks of established law in the land, and yet he is unwilling to stand for established law in the world.""The senator from Idaho has been preaching peace—peace when it comes to 'niggers'—when capital and labor are involved. And yet when it comes to international affairs he is standing in the pathway of the very thing to which he has paid so high an oratorical tribute. He wants America to stand isolated. She couldn't do it forty-eight hours, even if she wanted to."If lynchings were confined to those incidents mentioned by Senator Williams, Senator Borah replied, the human race might be disposed to pass them by on that reason. "But," he added, "the disease spreads and men are lynched for the most trivial cause.
The records show 318 negroes lost their lives during the first year of theWHEN MEALS of Another Victory LoanWHEN, on the morning of November 11th, 1918, the guns were hushed and glad tidings flashed across the world, there followed with the Nation's Prayer of Thanksgiving, one yearning query, which found echo in the faster-beating hearts of wives, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters and sweethearts.THAT query was, "How soon will our boy be home?"AND, from France and Flanders, from Italy and Egypt, from Palestine and from far-off Siberia, there came an answering echo, "How soon, how soon, may we go home?"CANADA caught the spirit of these longings, and at once resolved to satisfy them.IT was an appalling task. Shipping was tragically scarce. The composition of the Army of Occupation had not then been settled. And other parts ofNeed Divides Itself in Two Parts(a) To finish paying the expenses of demobilization, and the obligations we still owe to our soldiers.

(b) To provide national working capital.

Obligations to SoldiersThe obligations to soldiers include:That already incurred cost of bringing home troops from overseas.
The payment of all soldiers still undemobilized. This includes more than 20,000 sick and wounded who are still in hospital, and who of course remain on the Army payroll till discharged.The upkeep of hospitals, and their medical and nursing staffs, until the need for them is ended.These three items alone will use up at least $200,000,000 of the Victory Loan 1919.

Gratuities

There is also the gratuity which has been authorized, and has been and is being paid to assist soldiers to tide over the period between discharge and their re-adjustment to civil life. For this purpose alone, $61,000,000 must be provided out of the Victory Loan 1919, in addition to the $59,000,000 already paid out of the proceeds of the Victory Loan 1918.The answer to the question "Why does Canada need another Victory Loan?" divides itself into
tions we still owe to our soldiers.

(b) To provide national working capital.

Land SettlementFurthermore, soldiers who desire to become farmers may, under the Soldiers' Land Settlement Act, be loaned money by Canada with which to purchase land, stock and implements. The money so advanced will be paid back; meantime each loan is secured by a first mortgage. Up to August 15th, 29,495 soldiers had applied for land under the terms of this Act; and 22,281 applications had been investigated, and the qualifications of the applicant approved. For this purpose Canada this year requires $24,000,000.Vocational TrainingFor this work which, with the Vocational Training and Soldiers' Service Departments, embraces the major activities of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, an appropriation of $57,000,000 is necessary.These national expenditures are war expenses. They will be accepted readily by every citizen who gives thought to the task which Canada faced following the Armistice, and to the success with which she has met it.National Working CapitalCanada needs national working capital, so that she may be able to sell on credit to Great Britain and our Allies the products of our farms, forests, fisheries, mines and factories.You may ask "Why sell to them if they can't pay cash?" The answer is, "Their orders are absolutely essentialthe Empire as well as Canada were looking for the speedy return of their men.THE problem was this. The half-million men that Canada had overseas had taken more than four years to transport to the field of battle.TO bring them home in a few months was a gigantic undertaking—one to tax all Canada's ingenuity and resources.CANADA solved the problem, but it meant crowding into a few short months, an expense for demobilization which it was impossible to foresee.THEN, too, besides the sentimental aspect of the necessity for bringing the men home quickly, the economic side could not be overlooked.THAT was, to transform efficiently and speedily the nation's army of fighters into a national army of workers.to the continuance of our agricultural and industrial prosperity."The magnitude of these orders and the amount of employment thus created, will depend upon the success of the Victory Loan 1919.The "Why" Farmers and manufacturers (and of Credit that includes the workers on these Loans orders) must be paid cash for their products. Therefore, Canada must borrow money from her citizens to give credit, temporarily, to Great Britain and our Allies. Actually, no money will pass out of Canada.If Canada does not give credit, other countries will; and they will get the trade, and have the employment that should be ours, to distribute amongst their workers. And remember, we absolutely need these orders to maintain employment. If we don't finance them business will feel the depression, employment will not be as plentiful, and conditions everywhere will be adversely affected.For Trans- Money must also be available to portation carry on the nation's shipbuilding programme, and other transportation development work.For loans to Provincial Housing Commissions who are building moderate priced houses.These, then, are some of the things for which Canada needs national working capital. She is in the position of a great trading company, and her citizens who buy Victory Bonds are the shareholders.Those who give thought to our outstanding obligations to soldiers, and to our need for national working capital, cannot fail to be impressed with the absolute necessity for the of the Dominion of Canada.SUPREME COUNCIL WILL GE FIRM IN ADRIATIC MESSTo Allow Italy's Claim to Fiume Would Jeopardize

All Authority Founded
Upon Armistice and Peace Treaty.Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—To allow Italy's claim to Fiume solely on the basis ofits forcible possession by d'Annunzio's irregular troops, in the opinion of members of the Supreme Council in Paris, would involve recognition by the Entente of Humana's claims in Hungary; Greece's claims to large portions of Turkey, and even possibly Germany's claim to rich portions of Western Russia. It is felt that admis-sion by the Council of the right of any nation to seize territory, regardless of pledges to refrain from aggression, would be regarded as tantamount to an abandonment of the basic principle upon which the treaty was assembled and as threatening a permanent peace.Plans are being considered, it became known here today, to apply strong pressure to bring about a termination of the dispute over the Adriatic question, as well as in other cases where trouble has arisen Jeopardizing the authority of the Supreme Council, and threatening to set at naught its decisions founded upon powers conferred by the armistice and the peace treaty.

WEDDINGS

Thorne-Smith.

Several friends were in the depot Thursday evening on the arrival of the C. P. R. train to greet Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Thorne, who passed through the city from Springfield, N. S., on their way to Montreal on their honeymoon trip. They were married Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Smith, in Springfield, N. S., by Rev. Mr.
Bresnan. The bride was Miss Minnie Wilton Smith. She was dressed in a brown travelling suit, with hat to correspond, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Purdy, organist of the Baptist church there, play-ed the wedding march. Following the ceremony, they left for Montreal, on their return they will reside in Fred-erickton, where the groom is engaged with Chestnut & Co. He is a former St. John boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. B.
W. Thorne, 203 Duke street, and both he and his bride will enjoy best wishes from numerous friends for future happiness.
