A CANDID FRIEND: The Montreal Star, which had much to do with putting the Borden government into power, is now engaged in exposing the weakness and hypocrisy of the men from whom it hoped some few months ago.

The color of the ground was in him, the red earth; The tang and color of all primal things—The restitude and patience of the rocks; The gladness of the wind that shakes the corn; The courage of the bird that dares the sea.

That man gathers all the kingdoms of the world up into himself could only be understood and interpreted by the poet, and the fact that an individual man is the fruit which it cost, all the foregoing ages to form and ripen, is just as important as the knowledge by which his hand is trained to cunning workmanship.

But how is a child to be given a love for good poetry? Dr. Peterson suggests that it be given by introducing again into the public schools the practice of recitation, especially the recitation of good English poetry.

THE PATRONAGE REVOLT: Ottawa despatches announce that more than twenty French-Conservative members of Parliament from Quebec who are supporters of the Borden administration left the capital suddenly yesterday.

scientific and with a view to making the tariff serve certain well-defined purposes. All of this sharp criticism from a candid friend, all this aggressive discontent, is abundantly justified by the facts.

CLAIMS OF GOOD POETRY: Dr. Peterson of McGill University has been advocating the claims of good poetry in a lecture delivered before the Woman's Club of Montreal.

"I am the child of earth and air and sea! My lullaby by hoarse sidrian storms Was chanted:

and Edwin Markin gives striking expression to the same thought, in his lines on Lincoln:

THE ONE BIG ISSUE—MARKETS: It is probable that farmers throughout New Brunswick will have read with a large degree of interest a letter from Mr. William B. Fawcett, of St. John, which was published in The Telegraph on Saturday last.

WILL IT GO BEYOND CENTREVILLE? Is the credit of the province of New Brunswick going to be employed to build a railway from St. John to Centreville only, and not through to Grand Falls?

A TRAVELER'S OBSERVATIONS: The Rev. Dr. R. J. Campbell, of the City Temple, London, who recently visited Canada and the United States, is returning to England, and has made a statement before leaving New York expressing marked disappointment with democracy as he has observed its fruits in the United States.

NOTE AND COMMENT: No date is yet set for the beginning of street railway extension. St. John cannot wait until 1913 for that.

the marriage law, may be said not to lie within the control of the Conservative ministry, but within the grip of Mr. Bourassa's representatives in the Cabinet, and Mr. Bourassa's interest in the advance of the church in Quebec is greater than his interest in any purely political question of the day.

There will be no change until a far greater number of men have come to see that money has been exalted to a position of false importance in the civilization of today.

THE CARLETON SENTINEL IS BOOMING: L'Etang, and it says the delay in signing the Courtenay Bay contract causes skeptical ones to think of L'Etang as the coming harbor.

Home Rule: The grant of local self-government changed Canada in the twinkling of an eye from a state of open rebellion to one of adamant loyalty.

Who wields the Conservative party whip? Mr. Monk or Mr. Bourassa? Talk of a big coal strike in the Pennsylvania region is due to the fact that the agreement between operators and miners is to expire in April next.

THE OFFICIAL ANALYSIS OF THE LAST FEDERAL ELECTION WAS ISSUED TODAY. The Conservatives received a majority of 44 seats through out the whole Dominion over the Liberals.

These are strange tidings to come from L'Etang via Woodstock, and no harm can be done in recording them here. It helps to show what a queer world we live in.

There is every indication that the boom which has struck St. John is not confined to the city and vicinity but that the forward movement is making itself felt over the entire province.

It must have grieved Hon. G. E. Foster's patriotic soul to its depths to have been compelled to ask the Interstate Commerce Commission for leave to file special grievances for Canada grain and so relieve the situation in the west by taking the grain out through the southern route.

Money from outside points continues to seek investment in St. John property. There has been more activity in real estate here in the last two months than in sev-

RECIPROCIITY WILL NOT STAY "BURIED"

E. W. Thomson Finds Sentiment in Canada Growing Stronger for Freer Trade With the United States, Now That the "Interests" Have Shown Their Hand.

(E. W. Thomson in Boston Transcript). Ottawa, Jan. 22—Our tariff-grating era is no longer jubilant over the slaying of reciprocity. It hasn't stayed dead for three months ago they swore the corpse was buried so deep that it could never reappear in Canadian politics.

Reciprocity!—Who dares to say that parlor word?—it would have ruined many of us. So screamed the tariff-grater's president last week, he a proponent of matches. This suggests a dread of free importation of those wicked Yankee matches which don't disseminate phosphy-lene.

There is no harbor at St. John anyway and the citizens of that city thought so, when they voted on Sept. 21. These are strange tidings to come from L'Etang via Woodstock, and no harm can be done in recording them here.

other parts of the province is also reflected in the large number of deeds recorded. Some of the more interesting are the St. George's Paper Co. purchase of the International Auto Co. Limited, from J. M. McDonald and P. L. Back to New Brunswick For A Week.
