Ayer's

Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive diseases of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poison.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even when no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.

Nursery Rhymes—No. 24.

A STORY OF DOOM! (almost)

CANTO I.

The coffin-maker bent low at his work.
And, coughing, cast his eye upon his bench,
A spasm came, which gave his frame a jerk.
And shook his head about with fearful wrench;
The blood skipped from his ears and sought the ground;
The Undertaker deemed his lungs unsound.

CANTO II.

It was a dull and dismal afternoon.
The ice had melted in the Skating Rink,
And lovers sighed to walk beneath the moon.
And topers paused at Bars to get a drink;
The coffin-maker hummed an air sad when stood,
And drove a nail deep in the coffin-wood.

CANTO III.

Another spasm came, then down he fell,
And sought the pitch-pine floor, quite ill at ease.
And listened to the knell of deep-mouthed bell,
His gold hair fluttering madly in the breeze;
But Ham's Invigorator cured the pain,
And Ayer's Vigor brought in the hair again.

CANTO IV.

These two great Cures he at the Chemist's bought,
The Pharmaceutist's, King street, twenty-four,
Where Drugs and Medicines are often sought
By iron-mongers when life is nearly o'er;
And coffin-makers, when they're coughing loud,
Take Tracheal Drops, and thus postpone the shroud.
