RHEUMATISM

Heretofore there has been a considerable diversity of opinion among medical men, as to the true character of this disease. Some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system and others viewing it as an acute nervous disease; but it is now generally admitted to occidisease arising from a poison circulating it, the blood, and further it is ad eitted that kheums tism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood, by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will feel better satisficand rejoice more, than the conscientionus physician, who has found out that a cure for this staborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a gentleman of standing, and international contents.

Dorchester and That Sort of Thing. DEAR TRIBUNE: Lovell's Dominion Directory describes Dorchester as a Reduced Prices at 49 King St. pleasantly situated village in a parish of the same name, in the County of Westinorland. It is the shire town. * *

Population 800. Prior to the building of the Intercolo nial Railway, Dorchester was a place of Ladies' Gold Setts considerable importance in comparison with the position it occupies to-day. It was here that the stage coaches, in the Bracelets, Ouff Buttons, Etc. Breakfast Shawls, Sontags, good old days of staging, some eighteen years ago, made their half-way halt between Halifax and St. John. It was in these good days, so long gone by, that the writer last visited this delectable c'ples at that date than they are now. "Hickman's Hotel" was the "hub" in LONDON HOUSE, could find a nome; could get a square meal and plenty of it; and, in a words could be entertained in a manner worthy of a city hotel of greater pretensions. (Do not, dear reader, think the writer is finding fault with the hotels now open to the public in this place, as this epistle will enlighten the reader.) Eighteen years ago the 20 CASKS Scotch Refined Sugar. Whitney Line" of steamers ran between St. John and Dorchester, and it was no DECEMBER 19 th 1 [1874. St. John and Dotenester, and I was a luxer, to take a trip on these craft unless your life was well insured and you were anxious to leave a widow (if you were ma r.ed) in good circumstances. The accommodation in these steamers was not of the best kind, nor was the bill of C. fare a thing "desirable to be got"-in the language of the venerable News. And w for the Dorchester of to-day. Having business at the Shiretown, we hastily donned our Sunday suit, hailed a cab and were soon at the Railway depot and on board the train. To describe all English Skates, the sights and scenes, to report the many good thi ngs that were said, and the plea sant incidents by the way, would entail a 2 " Hollands, Velvets, Silesias; demand on the TRIBUNE space that might shut out these hastily prepared notes.

So we will waive everything worthy of note until we reach that haven of rest

Dorchester. We were surprised when the brakesman called out lustily "Dorchester," as the time had passed quickly and pleasantly, and our surprise was increased when we saw a drab-colored two-storey building a mile distant from the town. We knew it was Dorchester. We had seen one representative of the Chandler family at some Station east of Moncton, another at the latter place, and here were two more of that prolific, ubiquitous family, and we were satisfied. We expected to see the residence of the Minister of Marine overlooking the Depot, but were disappointed. We fancied we saw the elegant, the stately mansion or Hon. E. B. Chandler (who has made more money from the building of the Intercolonia than any other man), and the fine view to be had therefrom, and here again we were disappointed. To reach the hotel it is necessary to drive along a piece of low marsh land over which Saxby's tide TENDERS will be received at he office of Public Works, Fredericton, until THURS, DAY, 24th day of December next, at noon, for the erection of a new Bridge over Meduxnekeag River, at the Town of Woodstock, according to plan and specification to be seen at said office and at the store of Hon. Wm. Lindsay at Woodstock. Each tender to be marked "Tender for Woodstock Bridge," and to give the names of two responsible persons willing to become sureties for the faithful performance of the contract.

The Commissioner does not bind his self to accept the lowest or any tender.

Chief Commissioner, Now.

House - that venerated structure - that has stood the battle and the breeze for more than half a century remains in s atu uuo. A great effort has been made to have a new bui'ding of stone erected of the non progressive party in the County affirm a stone Court House will never grace the square of the Dorchester court yard. If nothing can induce these J. (This was suggested to the writer by a good natured lawyer who hangs out his shingle opposise the Court House.)
