prices as were paid. For A 1 clear, clover or linden, 9 cts. is paid; Mixed flavors 8 cts.; Amber colored 7 cts.; Fall honey 6 cts.; Buckwheat 6 cts. Come.—Demand is thus far light, a market can at once be found for 500 to 1000 pounds of nice plump one-pound sections, 14 cts. is the best price; No. 2 12 cts. There is very little left in this country.

BOSTON.

Honey is selling very well but prices are very low, and we are often obliged to shade our prices in order to make rates, We quote 1 lb. comb, 14 to 16 cents. 2 lb. comb, 12 to 14 cents, Extracted, 6 to 8 cents.

DETROIT.

Very few sales reported. Best white comb honey, 12½ cts.; Fall white comb honey, 10 to 11; Extracted offered from 6 to 8; M. H. Hunt. firm at 23cts.

Bell Branch, Jan. 10th, 1887.

NEW YORK.

Since Christmas the comb honey market has been very sluggish and sales slow, but has shown more activity the past week. Stock in dealer's hands is large and prices rule accordingly. We quote present prices as follows:—White comb, 1 lb. sections, 10 and 12c.,; white comb, 2 lb. sections, 9 and 10c.; off grades, 1 and 2c. per lb. less; buckwheat, 1 lb. sections, 8 and 8½c.; buckwheat, 2 lb. sections, 7 and 71c.; California extracted, 5 and 51c.; buckwheat, 4 and 43c.

CHICAGO.

Since my last quotation honey has come torward very freely and from information now at hand it would appear that the Middle States will have all the Honey produced at home this sesson that can i. marketed or consumed, an that we shall not be apt to draw upon the Eastern States as we did last year. Best grades of white comb to-day at thirteen cents, Extracted six cents. and beeswax 25 cents.

HONEY OUTLOOK FOR SEASON OF '86.

Chicago.

The new comb honey coming in shows good quality. There was but little old comb held over, and consequently new arrivals sell well. Fancy white comb in 1 lb. sections, in paper boxes or glassed, commands 12 to 14c. and 2 lb. sections, glassed, 10 to 12c.; while lower grades of both sizes go at 8 to TIC. Dark pungent flavored Buckwheat Honey will probably be a good crop and go lower. The crop in N. Y., Pa. and Vt. is reported fair, while Iil., Iowa, Kas., Wis. and N. W. are said to have yie ded well. A small quantity of Southe 1 strained irregular Honey comes here, and se is as low as 50c. per gal.

The crop there is large Eastern Honey in bar-The California crop is rels, sell at 5 and 6c. reported heavy, and the vall cans (two in a case,) finds ready sale in the East. In consequence of the big crop of this splendid Cal. Honey and low freights, there have been a number of cars disposed of here already at 4 and 5 c. per lb. and much larger sales are expected in cooler weather.
