

322. They are reprimanded or punished for their neglect, 166. Members of the House are ordered to attend in their places to be examined, 170. When required before a Select Committee they are written to by Chairman, 171. And reported when neglecting to attend, 172. Statements made or evidence given in Parliament, not actionable, 178, M. 144. False evidence in the Lords, perjury, M. 329. In Commons, breach of privilege, M. 81, 331. In the Council, 177.

Speaker examines witnesses, and members and counsels put questions through Speaker, 181, M. 333. Lords put questions directly to witnesses, M. 328, 329. This practice tolerated in Commons, M. 332, 333. The questions are in writing, and read by the clerk assistant, 182. Members' names affixed to questions put by them, 153 (11 J. A. 295 and seq.) Expenses of witnesses, M. 334, 335. In Assembly witnesses receive two dollars per diem, with reasonable expenses (3 J. A. 179). Members of the Assembly required as witnesses are requested to attend by message, 175 (13 J. C. 64. Ans. '69.) Punishment for tampering with witnesses, 176. No clerk or short-hand writer to give evidence elsewhere without leave, 179, M. 332. In case of difficulty the witness is ordered to withdraw, 183.

Words of Heat :

Interrupt debates, M. 232. Rules concerning objectionable words, 108 et seq., M. 259, 260, 268, 270, 271.

See Offensive Words.

Writs of Election :

Powers of the House to issue writs, M. 54, 452, 453. Not to issue while returns may be questioned, M. 453. Nor until the report of the Committee, though the member may have resigned and the petitioners withdrawn their contestation (14 J. A. 1.) Issue of writs frequently suspended by Government on account of bribery and corruption, M. 490.

Writs of Prorogation :

Described, M. 216.