Rules

Find the word which best suits the clue. The word begins with the letter above the clue you are dealing with. The number after each clue gives the number of letters in the word. When you get the word, try to find it in the box of letters. Circle the letters in the word. After all words have been found the quiz word will remain.

- Answer to last week's quiz:
SCANDAL
Quizword Clue (11)
"Day"

CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's how to do it:

OXRUT OILZY
is
HENRY HICKS

One letter simply stands for another. In the sample O is used for the two H's, X for the E, Z for the K, etc.

"ZROMTLB BASDZC ET XTNP OTZZ UV ARVC
RVC GRCT PS PST ZUVT, HSL PATIT UB VS
PTZZUVY OARP CULPM PLUQXB PAUB
UVPTZZTQPDRZUBP BPDG OUZZ ET DN PS."

J.V. ZTVUV

Last week's answer:

"Everyone knows that going into Arts is a halfway home for people going nowhere."
Johnny Wayne

commemorate the sinking of the "Ellen", the life of Yorkshire fiddler Parkin Raine, or some other very localized subject. Having written and sung the same type of material for almost two decades gives Gordon's performances a natural grace and competence. You know he's not just singing folk music until he can get a band together. Except for a 20-minute intermission, his performance at Acadia was continuous for three hours. Between the songs he told their stories, which gave the concert a special back-porch kind of intimacy.

But when all the jigs and reels are done, what gives him his endurance among the folk is the buoyant power of his poetry. Even when singing what he called a "compendium of complaints" about fishing, there is that same attention to beauty in the natural world. These lines from his "Tune for November" are as apt this year as when first written about a decade ago:

When the wind backs around to the north in November wild geese go gangin' off to sea. There's snow in the wind O it's ever been the same—the north wind don't even know my name.

Gordon Bok's albums are on the Folk Legacy label. Saturday's performance was his first in Nova Scotia but he was talking backstage of an upcoming Halifax concert, so here's hoping!
