

WING CMDR. MACPHERSON

I.T.S. Sports Day 3rd Birthday Plan

In commemoration of the third anniversary of the opening of the No. 4 Initial Training School, R.C.A.F., personnel of the unit will stage a sports day Wednesday at the University of Alberta stadium. Events will start at 12:30 p.m. and the general public is invited.

Wing Cmdr. Macpherson is officer commanding the station.

Featuring the sports will be a 16-team fastball tournament, with all trainee and headquarters flights competing. Four games will be in progress at once on the field. Up to and including the semifinals, each game will be of five innings or a time limit of one hour. Entries have been made from each training course on the station, with two teams entered from the graduates. Headquarters staff is entering seven teams, while the pre-aircrew educational detachment and the war emergency training school are entering one team each.

Added attractions include an air commando obstacle race, base running, ball throwing and batting, and a greased pig catching contest. Special events for the women's division will include a horseshoe tournament and a roller pin throwing event. A refreshment booth will be in operation, and the band of No. 4 I.T.S. will be in attendance.

In the evening the airmen of the I.T.S. will be hosts to 600 servicemen and their friends at a dance in the drill hall. Personnel have been invited from various service units in the city, including the United States Army Air Force.
