

again to the East of Kimberley Bridge and (3)
I gave instructions to Sgt Neale about parking
Sgt Clarke's gun.

We were in the new position approx.
1 hour to 1 1/2 hours when I sent back for Sgt Clarke.

Prosecutor: "Were the men fed before they had to move?"

Answer: "Yes."

Q: "How long had Bob Corbet's crew been in action?"

A: "From 0400 till 1000 hrs."

A: "Were the men tired after having been in action, for that period?"

A: "Yes."

Q: "Did you see Sgt Clarke leave the Cafe?"

A: "Yes I did."

Q: "Did Sgt Neale report that the order had been given to Sgt Clarke to change
over gun crews?"

A: "Yes."

Q: "How long do you think it should have taken to do the change-over?"

A: "About ten minutes."
