

	v
	PAGE
Plate XIV. (a) Heavy pack basket for wood; (b) pack basket of hickory bark; (c) stones used in cracking corn or nuts; (d) muller and mealing-slab, as used until recently for grinding corn.....	185
XV. Mrs. John Williams, Caughnawaga, using mealing stones.....	187
XVI. Shelling corn for bread-making, Grand River reserve, Ontario.....	189
XVII. Washing corn to remove the hulls.....	191
XVIII. Grinding corn with mortar and pestles.....	193
XIX. Sifting the meal.....	195
XX. Pack basket and tump-line.....	197
XXI. Pack basket used at Oneidatown, Ontario.....	199
XXII. (a, b, c, d) Corn washing baskets; (e) basket for gathering corn.....	201
XXIII. Basket sieves, various types.....	203
XXIV. (a, b, d) Sap troughs of bark; (c) elm bark bread tray.....	205
XXV. Wooden bowls.....	207
XXVI. Spoons or ladles.....	209
XXVII. Spoons or ladles.....	211
XXVIII. Spoons or ladles.....	213
XXIX. Bread and stirring paddles.....	215
XXX. Bread paddles.....	217
XXXI. (a, b, c) Knives of bark and other materials; (d, e) corn-husk utensils for salt.....	219
XXXII. Some Iroquois corn varieties (in colour).....	221
XXXIII. (a) Green corn leaf-package; (b, c) leaf-bread packages.....	223
XXXIV. Iroquois bean varieties (in colour).....	225
XXXV. (a, b) Evaporating baskets; (c, d, e) berry-picking baskets; (f) pack basket for berries.....	227
XXXVI. Pack frame for game or provisions.....	229
XXXVII. Elm bark toboggan.....	231
XXXVIII. Fishing with wooden spear.....	233
XXXIX. Fish-trap and dam.....	235
Figure 1. Eating-stick or fork.....	85
2. Berry-picking basket of elm bark.....	126