

CONTENTS.

11

CHAPTER X.

|                                                                                                                                                                       |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| HON. GEORGE W. ROSS, LL.D., . . . . .                                                                                                                                 | 84 |
| His Definition of Success—Birthplace and Early Education—The Teacher—Inspector of Schools—Minister of Education—As a Public Speaker—Premier of Ontario—Statesmanship. |    |

CHAPTER XI.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| HON. CLIFTON SIFTON, K.C., . . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 94 |
| A Product of the West—How he Spent his Youth—Called to the Manitoba Bar—Professional Successes—Position on the School Question—Acting Premier of Manitoba—Enters the Laurier Cabinet—The Indian Problem—Qualities Exhibited as Minister. |    |

CHAPTER XII.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| REV. WILLIAM CAVEN, D.D., . . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 103 |
| Position in Church and Education—Scottish Parentage—Early Emigration to Canada—Education—The Teacher—Enters the Ministry—First Charge—Principal of Knox College—His Theology—Clerical Honors—Intellectual Qualities—As a Religious Teacher—Influence. |     |

CHAPTER XIII.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| RT. HON. SIR ROBERT BOND, K.C.M.G., LL.D., . . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 109 |
| Birth and Education—Entered Public Life at an Early Period—Speaker of the Newfoundland House of Assembly—Cabinet Minister—Bond-Blaine Treaty—Services as a Financier—Expressions of Gratitude from Fellow Countrymen—Knighted by the Prince of Wales—Diplomatic Career—Abroad. |     |

CHAPTER XIV.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| RT. HON. JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN, LL.D., . . . . .                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 114 |
| His Popularity in Canada—An Imperial Statesman—His Policy Formed in Boyhood—Early Career—Sympathy with his Fellowmen—Divisions of his Public Career—Birmingham—Municipal Improvements—In Parliament—Ideas of Government—Colonial Minister—The Empire—Arousing Popular Sentiment—South African War—Speeches—Results of the War—As an Imperial Leader—Some Forecasts—As a Speaker—Debater—Personal Characteristics. |     |