

CAN MAKE MEN SOUND AND STRONG

Detroit Specialist Discovers Something Entirely New For The Cure of Men's Diseases in Their Own Homes.

YOU PAY ONLY IF CURED

Expect No Money Unless He Cures You. Method and Full Particulars Sent Free. Write for It This Very Day.

A Detroit specialist who has 14 certificates and diplomas from colleges and medical boards, has perfected a startling method of curing the diseases of men in their own homes, and so that there may be no doubt in the mind of any man that he has both the method and the ability to do as he says.

DR. S. GOLDBERG.

The possessor of 14 diplomas and certificates, who wants no money that he does not earn.

He wants to hear from men who have stricture that they have been unable to get cured, prostatic trouble, sexual weakness, varicocele, manhood blood poison, hydrocele, impotency, etc.

The doctor realizes that it is one to make claims and another thing to back them up, so he has made a rule not to ask for money unless he cures you and when you are cured he feels sure that you will willingly pay him a small fee.

is something entirely new and worth knowing more about. Write at once to Dr. S. Goldberg.

The Hot Wash Tub.

For a lady to stand and drudge over a wash tub hot clothes this weather is both disagreeable and unhealthy. Call up phone 199, and we will call for your washing and deliver it back in as good order as we receive it, and cleaned as cheaply as you can do it yourself.

International Bible Lesson for Tomorrow—Psalm's Joy Over Forgiveness.—Psa. 32.

Golden Text—"Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered."

Our last lesson was the cry of a penitent sinner, thus is the praise of the sinner pardoned and restored by the grace of God.

V. 1.—It does dishonor to God to brood over our confessed sin instead of thanking Him for freely forgiving us according to His word,—"If we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

V. 2.—God to save us can only be just by imputing out guilt and sin to our substitute, the Lord Jesus Christ, who became man for us, and who His Own Self bore our sins in His body upon the tree, by whose stripes we are healed. Imputing His righteousness to us, He imparts it also as the divine righteousness of God, if we are guiltless.

V. 5.—Hiding sin is hell on earth, remorse its continuance.

V. 6.—None can be godly without like experience of confession and forgiveness, and when they pass through the waters God will be with them, and through the rivers they shall not overflow them.

V. 7, 8.—Hiding in God, preserved from trouble, songs of triumph, instructed and taught to go in God's ways, guarded by God's all-seeing eye, "who knoweth the end from the beginning," is walking by faith, not by sight—spiritual common sense—not like horse or mule, that have no mutual understanding with their owner and must be driven and guided by bit and bridle.

V. 10, 11.—Many sorrows shall be to the wicked—and to God's children also—but mercy shall compass His people about, and gladness and joy and praise are the portion of upright hearts; "for all things work together for good to those who love God."

present here. It is probably the most difficult character to play that Arthur W. Pincro ever evolved. Paula has broken the laws of society ty has ordin

ed. Her endeavors to regain her foothold after her marriage are fruitless. A hundred curious eyes are turned upon the second Mrs. Tanqueray to watch every action, every circumstance, everything connected with her daily life. The memory of her past is torturing her. She finds herself preyed on by this torment and cannot confide in her husband or his daughter. Socially she is ostracized, and in Aubrey Tanqueray's quiet country mansion she has neither sympathy, assistance nor social obligations to help her to forget. Every day is a day of self-infliction, of yearning for the position her vanity has caused her to forfeit. The complex workings of Paula Tanqueray's mind are vividly displayed by the splendid art of Sadie Martinot, whose beauty of face and figure are accentuated by the exquisite and costly gowns she wears.
