

Running Water for farm homes

The illustration below shows in a simple way just how an Empire Water Supply System will look when you have placed it in your home.

It will transform the home from one of drudgery to comfort. You will have no more water to carry—you will simply open a tap and draw a glassful or a pailful on any floor of your house or in the yard.

EMPIRE Water Supply Systems

supply both hard and soft water. Their initial cost is low, and they give a continuous service that will please you in every way.

Send to-day for our Free Catalogue and Information Blank. Fill in the latter, mail it to us, and we will select a system suited to your home, and estimate its cost without charge or obligation.
