

Don't Pay for This Sheep Shearing Machine Until You See and Examine it

Most dealers have it. If yours hasn't, ask him to get one for you, and when it comes have it set up and try it. If you are convinced that it is what you want, buy it and try it on your sheep with the distinct understanding that it must do the work O. K. or no sale.

This STEWART BALL BEARING MACHINE No. 9

is just the easiest of all shearing machines to turn. A boy can run it all day without tiring. It is ball bearing throughout, including a ball bearing shearing head, shears quick and evenly all over. The price including four sets of knives is only $15 75. It is really a wonderful machine and you will be agreeably surprised at the work it does.

Get your dealer to send now, or if you prefer send $8 and we will ship C. O. D. for balance and you may try the machine and if not satisfied we will refund all you paid out. Send for copy of new 1912 catalogue and Expert Instructions on shearing sheep.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Miscellaneous.

BELGIAN OR CLYDE.

I have two partly Clyde mares that weigh about 1,400 pounds. How will they cross with a Belgian horse?

J. C.

Ans.—They will, in all probability, mate more successfully with a Clydesdale.

PERMANENT PASTURE.

I wish to seed down a permanent pasture for sheep. Could you advise me a suitable mixture for same? The ground consists of sandy soil, hillside, facing the west. What quantity shall I require per acre?

R. A. G.

Ans.—Alfalfa, 5 lbs.; alsike clover, 2 lbs.; white clover, 2 lbs.; meadow fescue, 4 lbs.; orchard grass, 4 lbs.; tall oat grass, 3 lbs.; meadow foxtail, 2 lbs., and timothy, 2 lbs. This makes 24 lbs. per acre. No blue grass is mentioned, but there is scarcely a farm in Ontario on which these will not grow naturally, and in a few years there will be a large percentage of them in the pasture, even without sowing them.

PEA WEEVIL.

Would be pleased to learn, through the columns of your paper, at as early a date as possible, if there is any treatment that is effective in killing the bug in peas that are intended for seed?

W. T. F.

Ans.—Fumigate with carbon bisulphide. A tight box, or coal-oil barrel covered with a blanket, will answer the purpose of a fumigating box. A barrel will hold about five bushels, and three or four ounces of carbon bisulphide are necessary. Place it in an open dish on top of the peas, and cover tightly with a blanket and a cover weighted down for 48 hours. The bisulphide changes to gas, which, being heavier than air, settles among the peas and kills the weevils.

HICKORY LUMBER.

Would you let me know, through the medium of "The Farmer's Advocate," the price of hickory wood? I have cut down five trees, and delivered them in eleven logs of 12 feet each to the saw-mill, waiting instructions as to the sawing. In the event of being unable to dispose of same at the moment, I should like to have them sawn to the best advantage, and take into stock until I can find a market. The mill in question is only a temporary erection, otherwise I could let them stay over until I found a purchaser.

I. H. B.

Ans.—We are advised by a London lumber dealer that the best method of disposing of hickory is to sell it in the log to some of the handle factories, to be cut by them as they see fit. Cut into ordinary lumber, there is very little market for it, and lumber dealers do not care to handle it. For small work, as handles, etc., first-class hickory should bring around forty dollars per thousand.

CROSSING CLOSED.

There lies in the County of Dundas a farm that was owned by one man when the C. P. R. went through. They bought their way through, but a crossing was reserved by the owner of the land. The farm is now divided between A and B, each one owning the land on his side of track. The C. P. R. men come along and offer A and B so much money for the crossing, but they refuse to sell, but the C. P. R. shuts up the crossing. Now, what I want to know is this:

1. Can they do so when they do not own the land where crossing is?
2. If A rents B land, can he compel the C. P. R. to open the crossing? If so, in what way, as A wants to rent or buy the land from B?
3. What steps would A have to take to have the crossing opened?
4. If A cuts the wire and goes through, can the C. P. R. have him taken for damages?

A SUBSCRIBER.

Ans.—Write the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners. They will adjust the matter for you.

Irish bulls, Shorthorns, sold well at the annual spring sale at Belfast, March 20th, 96 head bringing an average price of $145, the highest price, $761, being realized for the first-prize winner in the class for junior yearlings, calved on or after April 1st, 1911.

Should Have Made a Will

Children Neglect Aged Mother

A sad case was brought to the attention of a charitable society recently, when they received an application for relief from an elderly woman.

Her husband had been prosperous, but died without leaving any will. The widow did not insist on her rights to a third of the estate, but turned everything over to the children, believing that they would look after her for the balance of her life. She had lived with one after another of her married sons and daughters, and her story of the way in which she was treated causes a very serious reflection on the ingratitude of children.

The main point is, however, that it is not fair for a man to leave an unprotected and inexperienced woman the responsibility of deciding on purely business affairs. It was the plain duty of the husband, as it is the duty of every person, to make a will. There is no excuse, because it is no longer necessary to employ a lawyer or incur large expense—the BAX Will Forms can be obtained for 35 cents. Accompanying each form is a specimen will properly filled out and full instructions for your guidance.

The BAX Will Form filled out and witnessed by two friends is absolutely binding and indisputable.

For sale by all Druggists and Stationers, or sent on receipt of 35 cents by the BAX Will Form Company, 275 "F" College St., Toronto.
