

Branch No. 4, London.
Meets on the 4th Thursday of every month, at eight o'clock, at their hall, Albion Street, Richmond Street, Free. Wm. Conroy, Recording Secretary.

C. M. B. A.

The Drink Question.

STIR—You kindly in your next issue, as an old member of the C. M. B. A., inform us how many who have joined the Association for the purpose of abstaining from alcohol, and how many who have not.

Perhaps Grand Secretary Brown could advise us as to how many have joined the Association for the purpose of abstaining from alcohol, and how many who have not.

In the cases in which I have reference to I have received several times.

According to the C. M. B. A. constitution, any branch may be suspended or dissolved for permitting members who are habitual drunkards to remain in the branch.

It is important that the law regarding this matter should be strictly enforced.

Members should not, however, forget that Christian charity should at all times prevail amongst us.

At the regular meeting of Branch No. 11, Dundas, Ontario, held in their hall Tuesday evening, April 18, the following resolutions were adopted:

Moved by W. Lunn, seconded by Jas. Hourigan, that whereas the Supreme Council of the C. M. B. A., at their meeting held in Montreal on the 12th, 13th and 14th days of the month of October, 1892, did grant the request of the Grand Council of Canada for a separate branch in each city and town.

Resolved, That we, the members of Branch No. 11 of the C. M. B. A., in Canada do hereby request the Grand Council of Canada to take the necessary steps to secure the same.

Resolved, That we, the members of Branch No. 11 of the C. M. B. A., in Canada do hereby request the Grand Council of Canada to take the necessary steps to secure the same.

E. B. A.

Emeraldism in Ottawa and Almonte.

Through the exertions of J. F. O'Meara, Esq., and J. Hennessy, a branch of the E. B. A. was organized in the city of Ottawa on Tuesday, April 25. The St. Bridget's Beneficial Society having decided to wind up its affairs in consequence of their not being incorporated, a correspondence was opened with the Grand Branch of the E. B. A. with a view to forming an amalgamation.

The matter was laid before the Executive Committee, and it was decided that Grand President, A. Carey should visit Ottawa on Tuesday, the 27th of April, and the E. B. A. was little known in the East, the Grand Chaplain, Right Rev. Monsignor Rooney, V. G., kindly gave the following letter, introducing the matter, and as to how to proceed properly, as we wish to stamp out such conduct in the beginning it can be done legally.

In the cases in which I have reference to I have received several times.

The entertainment was given for the benefit of the church of Our Lady of Peace at Niagara Falls. The stirring efforts of Rev. Father Denis F. Best to make the party a success were not in vain. The financial results were more than satisfactory.

The Song My Mother Sang.

O sweet unto my heart is the song my mother sang. As ev'ning is brooding on its dark and noiseless wings.

Every note is charged with memory—every memory bright with rays of light in the lap of childhood's days.

The orchard blooms anew and each blossom tells the way. And I feel again the breath of eve among the new mown hay.

While thro' the halls of memory in happy notes there rings All the life-joy of the past in the song my mother sings.

I have listened to the dreary notes of Mendelssohn and Liszt, And they dripped and dripped about my heart and filled my eyes with mist.

As he went strong tears of pathos'neath the spell of Verdi's power. As I heard the tenor voice of grief from out the organ tower.

And God's oracles are full of notes sad, And the heart with rapture thro' the sacred pulse of time; But all the music of the past, and the wealth that memory brings—

Seem as nothing when I listen to the song my mother sings. —Thomas O'Hagan, in Toronto Globe.

THE "WAR" IN ULSTER.

The following amusing sketch—time September, 1894, aimed at the opening of the Home Rule Parliament—appears in the Dublin Weekly Independent.

WAR BULLETINS. Sept. 1.—Colonel Sanderson declares war. Sept. 2.—Colonel Sanderson, with two hundred men, pushes on towards the front.

Sept. 3.—Colonel Sanderson has caught cold in the trenches and has returned to Belfast for medical advice.

Sept. 4.—Dr. Kane has learned that ten policemen are advancing from Mullingar. Sir William Johnson, in temporary command of the army, has ordered his brigade to keep a pressing appointment.

Sept. 5.—Great disappointment was felt by the troops at the front on hearing that the British army had been ordered to remain at home to bury their relations.

Sept. 6.—First death caused by exposure to the cold. Wagon attended by the entire Second Army Corps of the North. General Johnston in command.

Sept. 7.—Things getting serious. Rumors of near approach of the police. General Johnston ordered towards Dunderrig and from junction with Colonel Sanderson's troops.

Sept. 8.—Arrival of the enemies' advance guard. The British army has been ordered to retreat upon Lifford. Severe battle charge. Retreat of Sanderson!

END OF WAR!! OBITUARY. MRS. P. WALSH, ADELAIDE. After a few short weeks the messenger of death visited this peaceful home and took his rest with his mother and father.

Mrs. P. Walsh, Adelaide, was the eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Kearns, of West Williams, and she was married to the late Mr. P. Walsh, of the same place. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death is a great loss to her family.
