

In Btg League

Joe Kelly says that his Toronto team will again win the championship of the International league. He declares that he has a stronger combination than he had last year.

Joe McGinnity has been knocked out of the box in both his starts for Tacoma in the Northwestern league. Vancouver hammered him for 14 hits.

Two Naps are either hitting away above their speed or have gained a new lease on batting life. They are Manager Joe Birmingham and Jack Graney. The first named is walloping the pill at .378 clip while his boss is just three points behind him.—Detroit Free Press.

Umpire Westervelt, late of the American league staff, is officiating in the American association.

Dr. Marle T. Adkins, veteran Baltimore pitcher, recently released after 10 years of faithful service, announces that he will open an office for the practice of medicine at Durham, N. C., after he has finished his duties as trainer of the Trinity college team.

In Luke Gavenich, newest Nap pitcher, the Cleveland club has grabbed off what is probably the first real bona fide gold miner who ever wore a Nap uniform. Gavenich Sr., is a mining contractor of Jackson, Cal., and not far out of Sacramento, and the boy went out of the grammar school obsessed with the desire to mine for nuggets. Later he went to St. Mary's college. He is the second graduate of that college to enter the American league, Harry Laus being the first.

Umpire Silk O'Loughlin says it has been two years since he saw his last American League ball from the stands. He stayed over in Chicago early in the 1911 campaign and saw the Sox and Browns play. "The game looks strange to me from the outside," said Silk, "I have got out of the habit of judging a game from a point off the field. It does not look the same as it does when you are behind the plate or back of the pitcher. I think I prefer to sit in the grandstand however."

Walter, the New York outfielder, made his stay in the major league to George Hallings. He was a left-handed pitcher when Stallings succeeded him from the Boston American for the New York Highlanders and made an outfielder of him. The club which has appeared here thus far in the race has shown superiority in any department over the Grays, the Toronto team excepted, and the fans are looking forward to the future without very much fear of the outcome, says the Providence Journal. Evidently the Journal does not include Buffalo in this. The Herd outplayed the Grays in the first two games of the series thus far.

Ed. Walsh is no longer the entire White Sox. Young Schalk, Comiskey's debutante catcher, is flashing the Archer brand back of the bat and tery appears to be one of the best teams Commy has had for several years.

Chicago has gone daft over Catcher Schalk of the White Sox. The $10,000 youngster is pronounced the best back-stop in either major league. He is handling all of Comiskey's pitchers like a seasoned veteran, his throwing to bases is wonderful, and his batting is a big surprise.

Manager Jennings has added another Frenchman to his Tigers in the person of Catcher Russell Breaux, a student at the University of Louisiana, who will report at the close of the college year.

Charles Ferguson, the new American league umpire, was with the American association three years previous to this one, and is regarded in the latter organization as the equal of Brick Owens, who graduated from the American association to the National league.

Every now and then a pitcher of ability is allowed to slip into the minor leagues only to be recalled by some major league club and make good. Tom Hughes had his experience and now Fred Falkenberg seems destined to do the same thing.

His initial game for the Naps showed him to be much too valuable a man to have spent any time in the minors. Larry Lajoie beat out a bunt the other day, which feat called for full-faced type. But there are bunts and bunts. A Lajoie bunt is anything that stays inside the fence.

"How in blazes" queries a New York fan, "does Chance hope to make a ball team out of three Rays, a Roy, a Russell, a Harold, and Fern, a Birdie and a Gert?"

Joe Kelley says: "I am fairly well satisfied with the club, but may have a new pitcher or two in line when we reach home for the opening. The infield wobbled a lot in the Providence series, but I present plans mature I'll have a new man ready to fill the gap in a few days. The outfielders are strong enough to carry us along and if Northern keeps up his hitting we will never miss Benny Meyer, except out there in the coaching box. The club has a lot of strength in the battery department, and catches Bemis and Graham are inferior to none in the league."

The Pittsburgh club has arranged for the Pirates to play an exhibition game with the Cleveland Naps in Cleveland on May 4.

Extremes meet: High plays the field for Detroit, and Lowe occasionally scouts for the same club. Weakness on fly balls is said by Philadelphia critics to be the worst fault in the first-base play of young Janvin, of the Red Sox.

Two sons of Connie Mack are now playing ball. Harry McGillicuddy, younger brother of Earl, is with the latter's Raleigh team.

times but Roy Brown and T. J. N. were over to see the boys work out and the big boss wrote that great big smile of satisfaction which has been nearly missing heretofore this season, when he witnessed the infield work yesterday afternoon. To an enquiry of a Courier representative who asked him if the Hon. W. J. Hanna would be present for the opening game answered in his off-hand way, "Well, Tesch is here—I'm through worrying."

If this boy Tesch can hit as well as he can cover the ground, as we have ever reason to believe he can, the fans can all take off their hats and sing with T. J.

Troubles may come, And Troubles may go, But Tom Nelson Will have a team Whether or no.

Poor, old Amby! Don't feel bad, old sport! It's a long way from September. But remember, Amby, it's a long time that has no turn, and your Red Sox will be able to make many turns, ere the season closes. You must remember that "it's an ill wind that blows nobody no good." Your got yours, Amby, before the season started. "Others" will get theirs after the season has started.

A. J. Andrews holds the season's record up to date for a fast work-mile at the Lexington track. Last Monday he sent Fair Virginia along for a trip in 2:19 1/2. Billy also worked the two-year colt, Menzo Todd, a handy mile in 2:25.

Ann Arbor, Mich., has a new half-mile track backed by a matinee organization.
