FOURTEEN MEN
ALL PERISHED

A Terrible Airship Tragedy is Reported From the North Sea.

[Canadian Press Despatch]

HELGOLAND, North Sea, Sept. 10.— —Torpedo boat destroyers with their search lights flashing over the dark waters, remained all night at the scene of yesterday's airship catastrophe in which fourteen officers and men out of a crew of twenty-one perished when the new German marine dirigible, Zeppelin L.1, while flying from the German coast to this island, was wrecked in a hurricane.

No further airman living or dead, were discovered to-day. Thirteen corpses, including those of Capt. Metzing, chief of the naval airship service; Capt. Hanne, commander of the wrecked dirigible and Lieut. Baron von Maltzahn and the Engineer Officer Wehmer undoubtedly are confined in the cabin of the airship which lies at the bottom of one of the deepest parts of the North Sea. The fourteenth victim was picked up by boats launched from the destroyers, but he was dead when taken out of the water.

The airship was engaged in reconnaissance work in connection with torpedo boat manoeuvres, and when struck by the gale was flying a height of from 5,200 to 5,000 feet. She was equipped for a thirty-hour's cruise and was observing actual warfare conditions. The balloon had sustained a heavy loss of gas due to the cold atmosphere and already was unmanageable when caught by the storm.
The entire amount of water ballast was thrown overboard, but the airship failed to respond and fell into the sea at a point about eighteen miles north of Helgoland.

Park, one of Coney Island's famous amusement places, was instantly killed last night in an automobile accident near Pinebrook. Her sister, Mrs. H. Boyle, was with her in a runabout which Mrs. Thompson was driving. Turning out to pass a truck which was met on a steep hill, Mrs.
Thompson, the machine too far and the car ran under a heavy oak railing placed to guard the roadway edge.

Mrs. Thompson's body was caught between the car seat and the railing and crushed.

Mrs. Boyle was thrown clear of the rail and into the soft meadow land a few feet below. She was not badly injured, but suffered from the shock of seeing her sister killed.
