

The Lake of the Woods.

AT KENORA:—
(1) Yachting. (2) Diving and Swimming.
(3) A Regatta Day.

THE Lake of the Woods, along the line of the Canadian Pacific, is a fascinating link in the chain of lakes between the boundless waters of Superior and the golden grain of Manitoba prairie.

With nature's own loveliness as a recommendation it stands unrivalled in the estimation of the many who yearly visit its island-crested waters and plunge into the pure unadulterated delights which it affords.

Kenora, a town of growing importance in lumbering, mining, flour milling and fishing, possessing a population of 6,000, reclines on the north shore of the lake and holds the unique position of gateway to this attractive body of water.

Kewatin, whose flour milling industry has made the name a household word in the Dominion, fringes the lake three miles distant. It is a mecca for the summer-seeker who has built his artistic and attractive home on its splendid shore line and on the islands adjacent.

For some 30 miles this richly adorned sheet studded with over ten thousand islands stretches along the border line between the provinces of Ontario and Manitoba and the state of Minnesota.

These water girted bits of land vary in size from a few square feet to several square miles and are richly timbered with spruce, pine, birch and poplar. The northern portion of the lake covers an area of 2,500 square miles. From the middle of May until the end of October, the months are panoramas of beauty to the camper, the lake voyager, the sportsman and hunter who visit this aquatic wonderland, 1,077 feet above sea level.

A few car strokes from Kenora you can rough it in the woods or if you wish to enjoy life more leisurely, an up-to-date cottage can be secured.

Fishing is a very popular pastime for the men, women, and children each season. In the numerous fishing preserves are found pike, pickerel, rock bass, trout, muskellunge and sturgeon.

During the autumnal months exciting raids are made upon the wild duck, geese, and partridge, while the deer and moose on the larger island stretches furnish an attraction of wonderful possibilities for the enthusiastic hunter.

Coney Island with a shore line of seven miles lies but a ten minutes' glide from Kenora. It is the summer residence of over three hundred people. It possesses a large natural park, a portion of which has been fitted up as playgrounds for children. Kenora Park, a large wooded tract of land, has been set aside for pleasure purposes. Kenora Trap Association Island is a much frequented spot and is open not only to Kenora residents but to the summer guests who come within her gate. Kenora Rowing Club and Kewatin Yacht Club are the rendezvous of many from town and the islands. Here the social side of life is indulged either by the weekly dance or the local water races. Regattas are held at intervals during the season, many outside events being entered from different portions of Canada and United States, a carnival of sports continuing several days. Steamers, launches, sail boats and various craft cruise about the lake daily and for a small fee the visitor can make a trip of several hours in and out among the islands of the lake. For a long cruise, the steamers "Keenora" and "Agawind," well-appointed and commodious, leave Kenora twice during the week for Rainyriver and Port Frances. The Steamer "Kathoon," a popular boat, makes a daily trip during the season to Minaki, Ont. It is a delightful trip of three hours down the Winnipeg river, return being made to Kenora same day in sufficient time to permit the traveller to entrain for the east or west via the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Even when the summer is gone it is a great delight to visit the Lake of the Woods district in the Fall.

Telephone Courtesy is Growing in Favor.

Newspapers and periodicals, which reflect so well the trend of public opinion, are continually urging the practice of telephone courtesy.

Progressive merchants are studying its relation to their sales. Employees are being trained to treat telephone callers with the same degree of courtesy and consideration that obtains in a face-to-face conversation.

And the result for those who practice telephone courtesy faithfully is a constantly growing volume of telephone trade and good-will.

The encouragement you give to your employees in developing pleasing telephone manners will bear fruit in the promotion of good-will amongst your customers.

RALLY DAY AND OTHER SPECIAL SERVICES IN LOCAL CHURCHES

Yesterday Was Sunday of Activity in the Religious Portion of the City—Details of the Services.

Sunday in the local churches yesterday was one of unusual activity throughout the city. Special rally services were the order of the day in the majority of the Methodist and Baptist churches, while at St. John's Anglican, the farewell sermons of the Rev. G.W. Saunders were preached, and at Alexandra Presbyterian anniversary services were conducted, commemorative of the founding of the church. Special speakers in this city for the day were the Rev. David W. Snider, secretary of the Dominion Lord's Day Alliance, who addressed large gatherings in the morning at Colborne street Methodist, and in the evening at Brant Avenue Methodist, and Rev. Gordon H. Baker, of Montreal, who preached at Calvary and Park Baptist churches. Mr. James Rylie of Toronto, also assisted in the services at the First Baptist church, and Rev. W. J. Knox, M.A., officiated at Alexandria church, Colborne St. Church.

Methodist church, with very large attendances at both. At the Brotherhood rally, held at the usual hour of 10 in the morning, the rooms were filled, and the pastor, Rev. W. E. Baker, taking his text from the words found in the gospel of St. John, "He that believeth in the Son shall have everlasting life," delivered a most inspiring address upon the subject of being obedient Christians. Mr. Baker used four words in pointing out the ways in which we might serve God; as workers, working together in His service; as servants, in doing His will; as witnesses in bearing testimony of the gospel, and as ambassadors in carrying His word to others.

55 DARLING STREET

only place where any decrease in membership is recorded being in the young men's classes, the war accounting for the absence of a great many of these. A most interesting and pleasing program of music and recitations from members of the classes was presented, and the gathering, which was under the charge of Mr. C. F. Verity, superintendent, was addressed by the Rev. Mr. W. J. Thompson of the Congregational church, who took as his subject the vision of the beast with four faces, pointing out that behind the Christian manhood there lay the courage of the lion, the patience of the ox, and the farsightedness of the eagle. In the evening the regular services were conducted by the pastor, who gave a most edifying address, making a strong appeal for answers to "The Call to Service." He urged that all should be ever vigilant for opportunities to do good to some one, and made an appeal for Sunday school teachers, as it was in this, that next to the home the greatest opportunity for Christian service presented itself, for it was the place where the true ideals were instilled into the hearts of the younger generation, where recruiting for the manhood and womanhood of the coming age took place.

Appropriate music was rendered during the services, Mr. G. N. Crookery and Mr. N. E. Ayliffe rendering very beautiful solos.

Brant Avenue Church
Rev. W. E. Baker, pastor of Colborne street Methodist church, occupied the pulpit at Brant Avenue Methodist church yesterday morning, conducting the services and delivering a very powerful address upon the subject of Individual Responsibility, taking as his text the words found in the Gospel of St. Mark, xiii, 34: "To every man his work." Mr. Baker went on to point out the variety of talent which was contained within every church, and the necessity which existed of conserving and putting to the best use that talent. Daniel Webster had said that his greatest fault was his individual responsibility. If we had nothing else to consecrate and devote to the Lord, we could at least give Him our hearts, for it was they for which He hungered above all things else.

The speaker warned his hearers that church work was not entirely a matter of organization; that a locomotive might be the strongest, but it would not move without steam. "No man can do the work of another in the church," declared Rev. Mr. Baker, "for there is a part to be borne by all alike. Nor can any man shift his responsibility onto the shoulders of others. You can't use the third person plural, and be rid of your responsibility," declared the speaker. "You can't ask, 'Why don't they do something?' You must bear your own share."

The evening service was conducted by the Rev. D. W. Snider, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, and was followed by an organ recital most capably rendered by Mr. Clifford Higgin, and comprising a number of most delightful selections from various sources. The attendance at all services was very large.

Elm Avenue.
The service at Elm Avenue Methodist church was conducted by Mr. W. T. Collyer of Brant Avenue Methodist church, who delivered an able and excellent discourse upon the subject of the new Temperance (Continued on Page Ten)

SUBSCRIPTION PRICES of BRANTFORD NEWSPAPERS TO BE ADVANCED

Commencing October 1st. next, the subscription rates of the Brantford Daily Courier and the Brantford Daily Expositor will be advanced as follows:

- Single Copies - - - - - 2 cents
- Delivered in Brantford - 35c per month ($4.00 per annum in advance)
- By Mail to Outside Points $3.00 per annum

These increases have been necessitated by the tremendous advance in the cost of white paper, labor, metal, and in all other commodities incidental to the production of a newspaper. For over 25 years the subscription prices of the two Brantford papers have remained unchanged, while during that period the price of most other things have doubled and quadrupled. During recent years The Courier and Expositor have actually been sold to the agents and boys, and to the subscriber, when delivery charges are added, for less than the cost of the white paper alone, to say nothing of the hundred and one other charges of which each copy should bear a share. Recently the situation has become so serious that the above advances, commencing October 1st, have become imperative.

Even Advanced Rate is Low by Comparison

Even these advanced rates are much lower than those charged by the papers in London, Belleville, Guelph and many other Canadian cities and many publications which for years have charged the prices the Brantford papers now propose, have announced advances considerably beyond these figures during the last few months.

Subscribers may renew their subscriptions for a period not longer than one year at the present rates, if payment is made before October 1st, but no renewals will be accepted at the old rate after October 1st.
