Do You Remember

When women wore long skirts,
And big sleeves,
And white undershirts and all that,
And hard coal was four dollars a ton,
And pork chops were ten cents a pound,
And you could get a fine suit of clothes for twenty bucks,
And sugar was five cents a pound,
And potatoes fifty cents a bag,
And men wore high hats and a cane,
And you could rent a house for ten dollars a month,
And shoes were three dollars a pair,
And overcoats about the price you now pay for lunch,
And real beer a nickle a glass,
And we had no strikes,
And Everybody was happy,
You do?
Gee, but you must be an aged bird.
