SOWING HIS WILD OATS
REAPING A HARVEST OF SORROW
 How many young men can look back on their early life and regret their misdeeds. "Sowing their wild oats" in various ways. Excesses, violation of nature's laws, "wine, women and song"—all have their victims. You have reformed but what about the seed you have sown—what about the harvest? Don't trust to luck. If you are at present within the clutches of any secret habit which is sapping your life by degrees; if you are suffering from the results of past indiscretions; if your blood has been tainted from any private disease and you dare not marry; if you are married and live in dread of symptoms breaking out and exposing your past; if you are suffering as the result of a misspent life—DRS. TELEPHONE FEDERATION

A special meeting of Leeds and Grenville Rural Telephone Federation was held in the council chamber, Athens, on Tuesday afternoon. President, Geo. Tackaberry presided. The following companies were represented:—
 Lansdowne—F. Cross, C. J. Phillips.
 Mallorytown and Lyn—F. H. Mallory and D. H. Mallory.
 Kitley—C. A. Wood and C. R. Church.
 Plum Hollow—A. R. Brown and S. Hollingsworth.
 Addison—G. R. Taplin and Frank Tackaberry.
 The first item of business was reaching an agreement as to the rates to be charged by Plum Hollow and Mallorytown, which have recently been connected. After a prolonged discussion it was found that no permanent basis could be reached, so it was decided that until the next annual meeting the two companies should send and receive messages at the Federation rates.
 The whole matter of interchanging and transmitting of messages throughout the whole Federation was discussed, but it was thought that the small representation would not justify action being taken. It was generally conceded, however, that a company having a switch-board located (like that of Plum Hollow) in such a position as to be called upon to transmit a very large number of messages should receive special consideration when the new adjustment is made.
 The meeting divided on a motion "That Plum Hollow and Elويد Co. charge a fee of 5c for each message transmitted to or from Mallorytown and Lyn line to or from any other line of the Federation" and the motion was declared lost.
 The thought was expressed that the Federation has grown beyond what the present laws provide for, and it is probable that very material changes will be made when next the Companies get together.

LATHAM—LEVERETTE

The marriage was quietly solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents in Frankville, on Thursday evening, when Miss Pearl, daughter of Mr and Mrs G. M. Leverette, became the bride of Amos H. Latham, of Brockville.
 The contracting couple were unattended and the ceremony was performed by Rev. A. E. Hagar, pastor of the Methodist church.
 Mr and Mrs Latham who have taken up their residence in town, are receiving the congratulations of many friends.

HANDS ACROSS THE SEA

Not a volume of The Youth's Companion is published that does not contain a number of contributions by British contributors—Mr Gladstone, the Duchess of Sutherland, Rudyard Kipling, Lord Tennyson have in years past written for this great family paper.
 During 1914 the Duke of Argyll, formerly Governor-General of Canada, will have something to say about "The Scot"—his character and characteristics; Jane Baylow will tell of the "Big Houses of Ireland"; Sir Earnest Shackleton will describe the qualities which lead to success in an explorer; Sir William Ramsay, the great chemist will write upon "Waste, and How to Remedy It"; Sir John Murray will tell about "The Deepest Parts of the Sea"; Dr. C. W. Saleeby, eminent English physician, will describe "The Beauty That Endures."
 This tells very little of what The Companion will bring its readers in 1914. As it is to-day, The Companion is as entertaining as you may remember it. But it is larger now, with Family Pages, Boys' Pages, Girl's Pages. There are fifty-two issues in a year, not twelve.
 If you do not know The Companion as it is to-day, let us send you sample copies containing chapters from Frank Lillie Pollock's great Canadian serial, "The Timber Treasure," with the Announcement for 1914.
 Every new subscriber for 1914 in Canada will receive free all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1913—from the time of subscription until January, 1915—all for $2.25.
 The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass. New Subscriptions received at this Office.

THAT COMMISSION

(Crawf C. Slack)
 They're appointing a commission down at Ottawa the Hub
 For to look into the matter of the soaring price of grub,
 They'll select some friendly fellows who will stand in with the bunch
 Who've a crow's foot on the products which forms our daily lunch;
 They will greet those grafters smiling and receive the hand-out tip,
 And report that all is lovely, and we'll still be in their grip.
 I don't want to be pessimistic nor the villain in the cast,
 But I'm forced to call to memory some commissions of the past:
 Some commissions which were chosen to look into questioned things,
 Which were never heard of after, I concluded they had wings,
 And had winged away to glory there to mingle with the blest,
 And had left the nation's troubles all to Borden and the rest.
 They'll appoint some book professors to do the pry-in stunt,
 Which will see and know most everything save that for which they hunt;
 They'll not be men who labor and live in stuffy flats,
 And toil for sixty hours a week to feed a dozen brats;
 They will not be workday mortals nor those who feel the pinch,
 They'll be petty party healers, they always get a cinch.
 They'll have a secretary and they will travel far,
 They'll be bolstered and upholstered in a private touring car,
 They'll be asked to many a banquet and be feted by the way,
 And of course the more they grumble the more the sharks will pay;
 They will visit all the cities look with favor on the game,
 And when they have reported prices will be just the same.
 Now if I had the appointing of this great pry-into crew,
 If they'd leave it up to me to act I'll tell you what I'd do,
 I'd hunt up Emeline Pankhurst, to head the fearless band,
 I also would appoint my wife, I know she's got the sand:
 With a dozen other women, which I know would not be dumb,
 And should they spot a grafter, well he'd be goin' some.

"Does Each Cow Pay?"

Some records of total production for the last seven months sent in to the Dairy Division, Ottawa, showing how individual cows on adjoining farms vary in real earning capacity, will be of interest to the average farmer and of value to men who are planning for better results next year.
 A ten-year-old cow that calved on March 12 has given since then just 2,812 pounds of milk, and only 102 pounds of fat. A neighboring 7 year-old, calved 2nd April, gave 6,420 pounds of milk and 228 pounds of fat, a little more than twice as much. In another contrasted pair in Glengarry, an 8-year-old, calved 6th April, gave only 3,894 pounds of milk and 129 pounds of fat; while a five-year-old calved 26th March, gave 7,280 pounds of milk and 241 pounds of fat, or again more than twice as much milk.
