

GOOD RECORD

The Late John O'Rourke was one of the Most Esteemed Residents of Chatham.

The late John O'Rourke, who died Sunday last, and was interred at St. Anthony's cemetery on Tuesday, was a respected and well known member of the community.

He was born in 1843 in County Clare, Ireland, and came with his parents to Canada in 1849. In 1867 he married Ellen Crump and the happy couple settled down on a 50-acre farm on the 8th concession, Raleigh, Ontario. In a small way, he worked perseveringly and with success his farm grew to 200 acres and he was enabled to purchase a large share in the Blomde Lumber Co., and also a large amount of property in Chatham.

His wife and the following children survive him, Mrs. B. Blomde, Mrs. John Maddon, of Niagara Falls, Ont.; Miss Minnie O'Rourke; James, connected with the Blomde Lumber Co.; John, Albert and Frank, who succeeded their father on the farm in Raleigh last year.

At the time of his death he was a member of the congregation of St. Joseph's church and the St. Vincent de Paul Society. The deceased was an honest and upright man and was much loved by all who knew him. His death was a loss to a valuable resident. Deceased had been ill for about a year and during that time he was a great sufferer. He, however, bore his illness with Christian patience and fortitude until death came and called him to his eternal rest.

"Take care of the pennies and the pounds will take care of themselves." Large things are but an aggregation of small things. If we take care of the small things we are in effect taking care of the large things which the small things combine to make. Take care of what you eat, when you eat, and how you eat, and your stomach will take care of itself. But who takes care of such trivial things? That is why, someday, the majority of people have to take care of the stomach. When that day comes, there is no aid so effective in undoing the results of past carelessness as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, and restores the organs of digestion and nutrition to a condition of healthy activity. It cures biliousness, heartburn, flatulence, indigestion, palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities and a score of other ailments which are but the symptoms of disorder in the stomach and its allied organs.

RIDDLED WITH BULLETS

German Soldiers Brutally Murder a Canadian.

Outrage at Swakopmund, German Southwest Africa, in which Dr. Anson Donaldson, of Brookville, Ont., received his death wounds—Sketch of His Career—Brookville Wants Government to Intervene.

London, Feb. 1.—A despatch to the Central News from Cape Town, published here yesterday, says: "Canadians here are enraged at an alleged outrage by German soldiers at Swakopmund, German Southwest Africa, who are said to have shot and killed Dr. Anson Donaldson, of Brookville, Ont. According to the story, Dr. Donaldson was walking peacefully in the street when a soldier fired at him, and while he was lying wounded on the ground, other soldiers riddled his body with bullets."

Brookville Shocked at News. Brookville, Feb. 1.—This town was shocked on learning of the brutal murder of Dr. A. S. Donaldson. His brother, C. A. Donaldson, first received the news through the local newspaper offices. The feeling here is that the crime should receive the attention of the British Government at once, and his brother has communicated with the Elder-Dempster Steamship Co., in whose employ he was, for definite information.

Dr. Donaldson was born in Brookville 29 years ago, and entered McGill University, Montreal, where he pursued a medical course with success. After graduation he was house-surgeon at the Royal Victoria Hospital. He enlisted with the Strathcona Horse and went to South Africa, where he served also with the second C. M. R. He also joined forces in pursuit of the Mafeking, and after that accepted a position with the Deaqua Bay Development Co. at Marquise. He then returned home and spent some weeks here, but left Brookville about a year ago, going to Edinburgh for a post-graduate course, receiving his licentiate degree. Later he accepted a position with the Elder-Dempster Co. as surgeon on the Stovelo, plying between Liverpool and the west coast of South Africa.

Dr. Donaldson was married and is survived by one sister and two brothers—Mrs. Herbert Simpson, Pittsburg, Pa., and George of Syracuse, N. Y., and Charles A. Donaldson of Brookville, also a South African veteran.

MUST GET MORE MONEY.

John Mitchell Says Miners Must Be Better Paid or No Agreement.

Indianapolis, Feb. 1.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, addressing the joint scale committee of the central competitive district yesterday, said: "There must be an increase in wages or there will be no agreement."

In his ultimatum to the operators, President Mitchell did not mention any percentage of increase. It is generally recognized that his statement is backed by the almost unanimous sentiment of the miners' delegates and that the minimum increase that would be accepted without struggle will be 5.55 per cent, which was the amount of the decrease in wages two years ago.

Mr. Mitchell declared that so far as his influence extended with the Miners' Union, and so long he could prevent it, the standard of conditions enjoyed by the miners at present would never be lowered.

He said: "I'm making this statement so that you gentlemen will know where I stand when it comes to point in the conference whether to agree or not to agree."

The operators of Illinois, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania districts have agreed to stand by the operators of the southwestern district.

"We will not go at one mill a ton advance, directly or indirectly," said one.

ROPES ROTTEN.

Or a Mistake in Orders in Lowering the Valencian's Boat.

Seattle, Feb. 1.—The point of yesterday's questions in the Valencia was to determine whether seamanship was shown in the launching of the lifeboats. Boat No. 5 was either dropped into the sea through a mistake in orders of the ropes were rotten. The boat contained 40 persons as it hung from the davits, hanging against the side of the ship with every sea. One end gave way, and nearly all the men in it were spilled into the water. Only three or four kept afloat until the boat was finally launched.

The witnesses said that some one on deck, presumably an officer, gave the order to lower away. No one could swear that the ropes were either cut or broken, but the evidence seemed to show that one end of the boat was dropped before the other was lowered.

CURES CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

One Week's Use of Hyomei Did More Than Six Months' Treatment by Specialists.

In the treatment of deafness which is often a result of catarrh, Hyomei acts almost immediately upon the inflamed membrane and the hearing begins to return at once.

Miss Meeks, of Mattawan, N. Y., says: "Hyomei is truly wonderful. I have used it but a short time and see a great change in my condition. My hearing is improving rapidly and I had no idea I would improve so rapidly in so short a time. My breath which was very offensive to myself and others, has lost its bad odor entirely. I have spent a great deal of money with catarrh specialists, and can truly say that six months of their treatment is not equal to one month of Hyomei."

A complete outfit costs but $1.00, and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler will last a lifetime and there is enough Hyomei for several weeks' treatment. Additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50 cents. Compare this small expense with the fees charged by specialists.

If you cannot obtain Hyomei of your dealer, it will be forwarded by mail, postage paid, on receipt of price. Write to-day for consultation blank that will entitle you to services of our medical department without charge. The R. T. Booth Company, Hyomei Building, Ithaca, N. Y.

STARTLING BUT TRUE.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theatre in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number, or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold, and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have spared it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a very severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. Wilcox, Logan, New York. Sold by all druggists.

The practical joker believes he enjoys a vast amount of true satisfaction in his own games.

It will pay you to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in your home. It only costs a quarter. Sold by all druggists.

WEBSTER AND BASTEDO

Mr. Hellmuth Sheds Light Upon Their Respective Rankings.

Fugitive Ballot-Switcher Bole Owes Department $38 by the Books, But Mr. Webster Thinks the Amount Much Larger—An Explanation of Mutilation of Letters—Miss Wallace's Evidence—Enquiry Adjourned.

Toronto, Feb. 1.—The feature of yesterday's examination into the alleged irregularities in the Fisheries Department was that Mr. Webster had styled himself as chief clerk and did not consider that he was subordinate to Mr. Bastedo, but of equal ranking. Mr. Hellmuth proceeded to show that by the nature of Mr. Webster's appointment Mr. Bastedo ranked highest in the department.

During Mr. Webster's examination it transpired that he had written across a letter regarding the removal of nets from Mitchell's Bay, when the ice went out: "Nonsense." He did not see anything wrong in this writing on his superior's letter. Mr. Webster's salary in the fisheries branch is $1,400 a year. He did not take an attitude of not being under Mr. Bastedo until the change of Government, and does not see much change in the conduct of the business of the department.

The Mulligan Charge.

As to matters of audit, Mr. Webster said he had been told to let things go, and that they were taken out of his hands. As to the Mulligan charge, it appeared that Mulligan had sent in $100 for a license, that the money was returned, and that a year after he got two licenses, for which he paid. It was alleged that Mr. Bastedo had allowed a claim of $150 for damages, but it was disclosed that Mulligan's claim was $94, and the $150 was a compromise. Webster could not suggest any political significance to this.

The Bole matter came up again, and it appears that Duncan Bole didn't pay much attention to Mr. Bastedo's request that he send in vouchers. The fugitive ballot-switcher is shown on the books to owe the province $38. Funds for Mr. Bastedo were present. Mr. Webster thinks the real amount of the deficiency is larger.

"I Am a Civil Servant."

"What are your politics?" Mr. Hellmuth asked the witness. "I am a civil servant," answered Mr. Webster to the commissioner, who said he didn't care what the politics of either of the gentlemen were. Witness said his only present connection with the Dominion Government was that he was drawing his superannuation from them. James Mulligan, a clerk in the Fisheries Department, was the interesting witness in the afternoon session, for he explained the mutilation of letters and letter books. Letters that were copied by mistake in the ordinary books were cut out and placed on the private book when the mistake was discovered. It was understood the letters to Mr. P's on R. E. were to be copied in the private book.

Explains Mutilation.

As to some letters of the department which had been cut in two, Mr. Mulligan explained that often letters would refer to two or more different matters, so they were cut into portions to be filed away with other documents dealing with the matters they referred to. This had occurred quite often. Mulligan had never seen Mr. Bastedo take a letter out of a letter book or destroy one. He could not explain the missing pages in the letter books, or the reason for tearing off the numbers.

Another witness was Miss Agnes Wallace, a stenographer in the Fisheries Department, who had charge of the indexing of the letter book and had seen personal letters transferred from the general book to the private one. She had never received instructions from Mr. Bastedo to cut out any letters, or to destroy her note books. Mr. Webster had asked her in the two weeks if she had been ordered to destroy her note books. As to the destruction of the books, she thought they were of no use.

The enquiry was adjourned till next Wednesday to give the commissioner an opportunity to attend to his other official duties, as he is mayor of London. He left for the Forest City last night.

Ottawa, Feb. 1.—The Australian Government has yielded to the strong remonstrances of the Canadian trade agents in Australia. D. H. Ross and J. S. Larke, and has modified its policy of adding the freight to the value of importations for duty purposes, which had the effect of discriminating against Vancouver and in favor of New York.

When the body was placed in the casket, following the service at which most of the members of the royal family are present. Floral banks of flowers and wreaths line the hall, which is guarded by the King's adjutants.

It is stated that King Christian left only a small fortune, amounting to probably less than $250,000. The King was exceedingly charitable and gave large sums of money for the relief of the poor and to deserving institutions. King Christian had issued a decree of amnesty, releasing many offenders.
