

WHOLE FAMILY USES THEM

"Fruit-a-tives" Keeps Young And Old In Splendid Health

J. W. HAMMOND, Esq.
SCOTLAND, ONT., Aug. 25th, 1913
"Fruit-a-tives" are the only pills manufactured, to my way of thinking. They work completely, no gripping whatever, and one is plenty for any ordinary person at a dose. My wife was a martyr to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money until we happened on "Fruit-a-tives". I cannot say too much in their favor.
We have used them in the family for about two years and we would not use anything else as long as we can get "Fruit-a-tives".
Their action is mild, and no distress at all. I have recommended them to many other people, and our whole family uses them.
J. W. HAMMOND.
Those who have been cured by "Fruit-a-tives" are proud and happy to tell a sick or ailing friend about these wonderful tablets made from fruit juices. One a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

It Couldn't Be Done—So He Did It.

Somebody said that it couldn't be done.
But he, with a chuckle, replied, "That, 'Maybe it couldn't,' but he would be one.
Who wouldn't say it till he tried. So he buckled right in, with a trace of a grin.
On his face, if he worried he hid it. He started to sing as he tackled the thing.
That couldn't be done—and he did it.
Somebody scoffed: "O, you'll never do that."
At least no one ever has done it." But he took off his coat and he took off his hat.
And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.
With the lift of his chin, and a bit of a grin.
Without any doubting or quiddit, He started to sing as he tackled the thing.
That couldn't be done—and he did it.

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

For Years, Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Canadian women are continually writing us such letters as the two following which are heartfelt expressions of gratitude for restored health:

Chatham Station, Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and never found any medicine to compare with it. I had ulcers and falling of womb and doctors did me no good. I suffered dreadfully for years until I began taking your medicine. I also recommend it for nervousness and indigestion."—Mrs. HENRY CLARK, Chatham Station, Ont.

Chesterville, Ont.—"I heard your medicine highly praised, and a year ago I began taking them for falling of womb and ovarian trouble.
"My left side pained me all the time and just before my periods which were irregular and painful it would be worse. To sit down caused me pain and suffering and I would be so nervous sometimes that I could not hear to see any one or hear any one speak. Little specks would float before my eyes and I was always constipated.
"I cannot say too much for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, for there are no medicines like them. I have taken them and I recommend them to all women. You may publish this testimonial."—Mrs. SYDNEY J. MARTIN, Chesterville, Ontario, Canada.
Mirand's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done.
There are thousands to prophesy failure.
There are thousands to point out to you, one by one.
The dangers that wait to assail you. But just buckle in with a bit of a grin.
Then take off your coat and go to it.
Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing.
That 'cannot be done'—and you'll do it.

What is a Friend.

A recent magazine article on the 'Big Brother Movement' of New York tells of a boy sent to the house of refuge, and therefore attending the school at that institution. One day in one of the classes, he was asked to spell the word 'friend.' The letter came slowly, 'f-r-i-e-n-d,' and then the teacher asked, 'What does the word mean?' The little fellow studied a moment for a way to express his thoughts.
"Oh," he said, "he's a feller that knows all about ye, an' likes ye just the same."

It was the highest thing in friend ship his brief life had taught him and it meant all he knew of help to love in his present and hopeful outlook for his future. Some one strong and tender knew all the pitiful, shadowed past, and yet cared for him just the same! That is the wonderful tie that binds us to our friend in heaven; he knows it all, the mistakes, the falls, the disloyalty, the tar wanderings and still he cares. We forget, but he keeps watch. We grow discouraged with ourselves, but he never grows discouraged with us. He is tender over the lost battle, patient over our weakness, pitiful towards the rebellious sorrow that cannot understand and that murmurs at its own blindness. He is long-suffering even with the faithfulness that seeks its own way only to come back to him bruised and torn at last. Human affection may be deceived in what we are, but the Love supreme knows all and still cares; it 'saves to the uttermost.' The Elder Brother is the need of all the earth.

Alcohol Diminishes.

"The Vanguard" brings this arraignment:
Alcohol is the arch enemy of resistance. The whole charge against alcohol may be summed up in this one damning indictment: 'Alcohol diminishes resistance.'
1. Alcohol diminishes resistance to itself, for beyond all other articles of consumption the appetite for alcohol grows by what it feeds on, and requires increasing quantities to produce the same satisfaction, until the will is paralyzed and all resistance gone.
2. Alcohol diminishes resistance to the infections and diseases which are the noxious by-products of our burdensome civilization.
3. Alcohol diminishes resistance to the shock and danger of wounds in war and accidents in civil life, thereby including complications, tardy recovery, or permanent dissolution.
4. Alcohol diminishes resistance to the lusts and vices of the blood, and temptations from without, by obscuring the moral sense and the precepts of our duty to God and man.
5. Alcohol diminishes resistance to the wiles and deceptions of our fellow men in all the business of life, by numbing the judgment on which, in the last resort, all success and all eminence depend.
6. Alcohol diminishes resistance to those real but little understood evils of heredity with which every man starts his career on earth, and which, whether as original sin or the evils to which we are prone from our very childhood, it is one of the chief functions of religion to eliminate or control.

Alcoholism and Death.
If we should depend upon the published statistics of the causes of death, says "Good Health" for April, we should have to conclude that alcohol is not a very important causal factor. But anyone who has given the matter thought and careful consideration must recognize the hesitation and reticence of physicians in ascribing death to alcoholism. There is a feeling that alcohol as a cause of death is a disgrace, and we are glad to note the signs of a healthy conscience. The doctor naturally does not wish to offend the relatives and friends, and finds no difficulty in writing something else on the medical certificate without alluding to alcohol.

Strength Past Fifty Years
can be maintained by adopting the right nourishment, and Nature's own oil—Scott's Emulsion—has strengthened thousands of men and women to continue their work and usefulness for many years.
Scott's Emulsion is a food, a medicine and a tonic to keep the blood rich, avoid rheumatism and throat nervous conditions. It is free from injurious acids or any harmful drugs. The best physicians prescribe it. 14-50

A popular society was in a mood for a 'white elephant' party. Every guest was bringing something that she would not find any use for and yet too good to throw away. The party would have been a great success but for the unluck of development which broke it up. Eleven of the nineteen women brought their husbands.

Telling the Bees.

The following beautiful stanzas by the late Eugene Field are based on a tradition that when a death occurs in the family, the bees must be told or they will go away and never return:
Out of the house where the slumberer lay
Grandfather came one summer day.
And under the pleasant orchard trees
He spoke this wise to the murmuring bees:
"The clover bloom that kissed her feet
And the posy bed where she used to play
Have honey stored, but none so sweet
As ere our little one went away.
O bees, sing out all bees sing out:
For he is gone who loved you best."
A wisp of hair on the tennish trees
And those pines on orchard trees
And in their nest that summer day
Even this murmuring seemed to say:
"Child, O child the grass is cool,
And the posies are waking to hear the song
Of the bird that swings by the shaded pool.
Waiting for one that tarrieth long
'T was so they call'd to the little one then.
As if it call'd her back again.
O gentle bees, I have come to say
That grandfather feel as deep to day.
And we know by the smile on grandfather's face
He has found his dear one's bidding place.
So, bees, sing soft, and bees, sing low
As over the honey fields you sweep,
To the trees in bloom and the flowers below
Sing of grandfather last asleep;
And ever beneath these orchard trees
Find cheer and shelter, gentle bees.
