SACKVILLE, N. B., FEB. 29, 1872. THE ELECTION.

The Battle is over; the victory i won. A majority of 600 votes rattiles the principle of free unsectarian schools. Well may the electors of Westmorland be congratulated for the judgment they pronounced on those who would make the religious carelessness of its promoters? feelings of a sect the stepping stone to power. It is a rebuke to the Catholic element, which having its rightful representation would grasp more. It shames Protestant Counties into a more vigorous support.
