Ingin was that Aurphy was benind in his dues.

Judge Edward F. Odwizer, President of the club, who has been leading the fight against Murphy, introduced a resolution calling for the elimination of the Tammany leaders and the others, but this resolution was not formally adopted, as the point was raised and upheld by the presiding officer that under the rules the men were automatically dropped as they had not paid dues for two montas.

Twenty new members were elected to the Club, including Governor Glynn, Dudley Field Malone, Collector of the port of New York, and Thomas Tumulty, brother of secretary to President Wilson.
