LOCAL & OTHER ITEMS

The heaviest snow since last November began falling at Cheyenne, Wyoming, on the 16th inst., and continued the following day. About ten inches fell.

Captain Colin Harbottle, Secretary of the Toronto Club, pleaded guilty in that city on Saturday last, to stealing $14,695, 85 of the Club funds, and was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

There was a good outside market yesterday; but the attendance inside was not very large. Prices have scarcely changed since last week, except butter, which was down to 30 cents.

On the Ohio River, near East Liverpool, Ohio, on Monday morning, a barge occupied by nine young men became disabled and was carried under a fleet of empty coal barges. Five of the men were drowned.

The Mersey Dock Board has approved the scheme for the extension of the docking facilities of Liverpool to cost over $18,000,000. The rapidly increasing trade with America has made necessary the enlargement of existing facilities.

The barkentine, the Ammie Smith, arrived on Friday in Charlottetown direct from Barbados with sugar and molasses for Horace Hazard. This is the first cargo of this kind to arrive in Charlottetown this season.

The first Lord of the Admiralty stated in the Imperial House of Commons on Friday, in answer to a question that not only Canadians, but people of other nations engaged in the seal fisheries in the Pacific, while Britain paid for the patrolling.

The Superintendent of Education intimates that he has appointed Friday, 22nd inst., as Arbor Day for all schools having midsummer holidays and the day of preparing for schools which have spring and fall vacations.

The new civil service act introduced in the Ottawa House of Commons eliminates the present system of annual statutory increases. It provides that thereafter increases shall only be granted on the recommendation of the Deputy Ministers. This purports to be reward on the basis of merit.

Much damage has been done to property in Lake Ontario. Dozens of houses have been damaged, roofs have been washed away, and parks and ball grounds have been flooded, houses have been undermined and foundations have been washed away, leaving them liable to topple over.

The budget, in the Imperial Parliament, was presented on the 9th by Premier Asquith, instead of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, for the reason that Asquith, as Chancellor of the Exchequer before assuming the Premiership had prepared it. The surplus for the year amounted to $23,630,000.

Nine men engaged in making the connecting link between the old and new elevated structures at the corner of Washington and Castle streets, Boston, on Monday, fell, with the breaking of the single plank on which they stood, 18 feet to the street below. All of them were injured, while one of them may die.

While coming from Egmont Bay to Summerside in a lobster boat on Saturday night, Philip Gallant and a companion had a narrow escape from drowning. The boat, capsized, and for five hours the two men clung to her till she drifted ashore. When they landed they were in an exhausted and pertained condition and could not have held on much longer.

A $35,000 fire occurred at Campbellton, N. B., early last Saturday morning, destroying twelve buildings, and for a time threatening the destruction of the whole town. It started in Harwood's lumber factory, which, with adjoining buildings, was completely destroyed. This factory was one of the principal industries, employing a hundred hands. The insurance is $34,000.

Winston Churchill, President of the Board of Trade in the Asquith Cabinet, rejected by the electors of Manchester, was elected in Dundee, Scotland, on Saturday last by 2090 majority. In the general election the Liberal candidate was elected by a majority of 4411. It will therefore be seen that although Churchill won, the former Liberal majority was reduced by more than one half.

Word comes from Portsmouth that Vice Admiral Curzon-Howe is to command the squadron of war vessels which will precede the Prince of Wales to Quebec and await him there. The squadron will consist of the first class battleship Emerald, Albatross, Duncan and Russell, and the second class cruisers Venus and Arrogant. Two warships will also escort the Prince who will probably sail on the new battleship Indomitable.

On Saturday last, the steamer Stanley, while engaged in placing the buoys off Cape Traversa, was obliged, on account of fog, to come to anchor. Her anchor fouled the submarine cable in seven fathoms of water. When the anchor was weighed the cable was hauled to the surface and parted. The result was the severing of telegraph communication with the mainland. The work of repairing the damage is going on.

The Herald Democrat, of Leadville, Colorado, of April 28th, contains the following relative to the obsequies of the late Patrick Feehan, of whose death we have already spoken: Yesterday morning the funeral of the late Patrick Feehan took place from his late residence to the Church of the Annunciation where a requiem Mass was offered by Father Berkmyer in the presence of a large assemblage of friends. At the conclusion of the religious services Father Berkmyer spoke on the solemnity of death and the edifying circumstances attending Mr. Feehan's late illness. F. her Berkmyer administered the sacraments to him and was present at his death. He also accompanied the remains to St. Joseph's cemetery. The Knights of Columbus and Woodmen were well represented and Messrs. Cameron, Brennan, Sivas and McLeod, officers of Violet Circle, were there in sympathy with Mrs. Feehan who is also an officer in that largest organization of ladies amongst us. The pallbearers were: Messrs. J. E. Mulligan, M. K. Mellish, Wm. Schreiber, Patrick Fitzgerald, Thos. Murphy and D. McEachern.

LOCAL and OTHER ITEMS.

In New York, on Saturday last, J. Edward Book pleaded guilty to the robbery of $300,000 worth of jewelry from different firms in that city. He was captured in California, and most of the jewelry was found in pawn shops in New York.

The Dominion Government steamer Montcalm is an expensive luxury. After spending the winter, not in breaking ice, but undergoing repairs, she was launched once more, and had scarcely got into the water when she got in the way of an ocean liner near Quebec, with the result that she was almost cut in two. She will now cost $100,000 more.

MARRIED
In St. Dunstan's Cathedral on the 11th inst., Rev. J. A. Gallant officiating, William Doyle, of the steamer Empress, to Mary Rebecca McMillan, daughter of Mr. Hilary McMillan, of this city. Congratulations.

DIED
