

Fun and Fancy.

A scolding wife is not "a joy for ever" - she's only a temper-ary affair. The best fire escape is when your wife gets up in the morning and makes it.

Scene: Bridal reception. Several of the guests, after shaking hands with the bride, and all speaking at the same time: "Where is the bridegroom?" Bride, naively: "Oh, he's upstairs watching the wedding presents."

"Investigator" wants to know what is good for cabbage worms. Bless your heart, man, cabbage, of course. A good plump cabbage will last several weeks as a weed.

"Remember who you are talking to, sir," said a father to his fractious boy. "I am your father." "Well, who's to blame for that?" asked young impatience. "It ain't me."

"I have often noticed that gallant young men walking with their sweethearts offer the left arm, while devoted married men with their wives offer the right arm. Why is this?" Edith: "The left arm is nearest the heart; the right arm is nearest the pocket-book."

A negro baby was born in Georgia recently which weighed only a pound and quarter, and a "literary feller," hearing of the circumstance, remarked that it was funny how anything so dark could be so light.

He had turned and twisted in his seat for nearly an hour, vainly trying to make an impression on the young lady who sat beside him. At last he asked: "Does this train stop at Cleveo?" "I don't know, sir," she quickly replied, adding: "I hope so, if you think of getting off there."

A grocer gruffly insulted Mrs. McGiffin the other day without intending it. She was an immensely stout woman and, stepping upon the scales, playfully requested the grocer to weigh her. As he adjusted the weights he remarked that she weighed 190 pounds, which proved to be her exact weight. "How did you come to guess it?" she asked. "I am used to guessing at weights. I weighed hogs for five years in Cincinnati."

Words of Wisdom.

Difficulty enlists the strong, but then it is that the weak desert.

Beware, oh beware of the mother of a man that despises women.

Wounds of the heart are the only ones that are healed by opening.

Jealousy is the sentiment of property, but envy is the instinct of theft.

In love, women go the length of folly and men to the extreme of silliness.

Kisses by people who do not love each other are merely coldly yawns.

Experience is a trophy composed of all the weapons we have been wounded with.

Weakness is the egotism of goodness. When one hope departs the other gathers more brightly together to hide the gap it left.

Breathe not a sentiment; say not a word, give not an expression of the sentiment that will offend another, or send a thrill of pain through his bosom. We are surrounded by sensitive hearts, which a word, or look even, might fill to the brim with sorrow. If you are careless of the opinions and expressions of others, remember that they are differently constituted from yourself, and never, by word or sign, cast a shadow on a happy heart, or throw aside the smiles of joy that love to linger on a pleasant countenance.

How a Woman Weighs a Ham. She wants to hang a picture on the wall. She gets a nail, hammer and a tall chair to stand upon, and calmly surveys the situation.

Then she measures the distance and scratches a spot, always an inch too high or too low, and prepares for action.

She takes a nail in the left hand, and the hammer in the right, and gently taps like the drum accompaniment of a musical box.

Then she lays herself out for a big blow, raises her arm and strikes, and yells like a captured Comanche Indian on the boundless prairie.

She goes about the rest of the morning with her thumb done up in a broad poultice. Yet she never learns from experience.

The next time she wants to drive a nail in anything she will hit it exactly in the same place.

Woman's Fluid Lightening. Needs no deciding when once introduced. Every bottle sold sells hundreds of others, by doing all and more than is represented for Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, etc. It removes any pain instantly, quick as flash. Try it and you will say it is well named Fluid Lightening. Get a 25 cent bottle at G. Rhynas' Drug Store.

Fashion's Fancies.

Curtains are now hung in one piece, thus doing away with the parting in the centre.

The pedigree and genealogy craze is being carried to ludicrous extremes in select circles.

Children's white caps have flaring ruffles of embroidery like a Mother Hubbard bonnet.

The new drink, called a "dude cocktail," is made of mush, gruel, chopped ice and fresh milk.

Broad sash ribbons in Roman stripes, or with large fruit designs, are to be extensively worn.

Mattings is used for screen panels. It takes oil readily, and is an effective background for flowers in outline.

Every white ottoman ribbon or pale blue, rose, or lemon coloured velvet ribbons are used for these long looped bows.

The checked or irregularly barred Louisse silks of soft quality and evenly twilled are also liked for summer travelling dresses and may be had in all the dandy styles.

Ecru is very much in fashion; there are very pretty ecru lace, linen with ecru scalloped and embroidered along the upper edge. These are on outside the dress collar, and there are two longwise buttonholes in front through which a narrow ribbon is passed and tied in a bow, and below this may be added two fan plaited ends of mtn. and wide laces.

Figured laces are plaited or gathered and fluted for use, inside the neck and sleeves of dresses. The laces chosen for this purpose are valenciennes in the newest designs, oriental, maroque, Mechlin, and the open patterns of Bruzes lace. One or two rows are used, and they are less full and fluffy than the lace plaitings.

The fancy for the present was a weather-er for very slight and simple dressing for the neck of street dresses, as a frill showing a severe linen collar with merely a button or a narrow ribbon bow tied in the buttonholes. Below this a long slender pin is thrust through the dress collar.

White silk grenadines for afternoon toilets have stripes of black velvet, or trimmed with black French lace in many frills, and are made up over white silk. Those with velvet stripes half the width of the grenadine stripes make very effective plaited flounces when, as is the case, the velvet stripe is on the outside of each plait.

Colored glass enters largely into house decoration this season, and among the different, so as it assumes are oblongs, which are suspended in the windows. Those bearing flights of birds are selected for conservatories, and flower designs for aviaries. Lamp shades are also made of it in yellow, pink or blue tints on which is painted the bright colored rose or deep luted violet.

A novelty for white camel-hair dresses for Newport and Mount Desert is trimming of straw in, at many parallel rows. This broad as a strip of an inch wide, and there are eight rows of it around the skirt above the hem, down the sides of the Norfolk jacket, on the collar, belt and cuffs, and the washerman's overalls. It has the reverse front completely covered with it.

Modern Newspaper English: "The tramp Rodenick, who bargled the two houses on West Hill last week and was jailed Sunday night broke out last evening, but was policed clear to the river, where, finding escape impossible, he shaved himself, and suicided. The body piled itself at the bridge and will be recovered in the morning. Truly, in the midst of life, we are deathed."

One Experience from Many. I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely discouraged and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me, they said, "Hurrah for Hop Bitters, long may they prosper, for they have made another well and us happy." - The Mother.
