I wonder if there is anything more characteristic of the haste of the average handwriting. Have you ever noticed how few people nowadays ALWAYS form ALL of their letters? How rare is the person who doesn't OCCA-

SIONALLY omit a loop of the "m" or chop off the last letter in a word? To say nothing of the folks who are guilty of these and similar carelessness continually. Of course there are some people who habitually write clear business-like hands, but a sort of suggestive impressionism, a sort of sketchy leave-you-to-guess-the-rest seems to me to be the prevalent note of the present day chirography. Just as with an indistinct talker one must help out the ears a good deal with the eyes, so with these indistinct writers one must assist the eye with the brain. That is, one cannot read wholly by the characters, but must be helped out by what one expects to find. I am especially impressed with this because of the many letters I get through this column from unknown friends. I can almost always get the context of these letters by using a little common sense when the writing is un-

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at night unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice. Don't be misled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good." Dr. Pierce's medicines are of known composition. Their every ingredient printed on their wrappers. Made from roots without alcohol. Contain no habit-forming drugs. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Wellington's Cool Interview With a Murderous Maniac.
One day as the Duke of Wellington sat writing at his library table quite alone his door was suddenly opened without a knock or announcement of any sort, and in stalked a gaunt man, who stood before the commander-in-chief with his hat on and a savage expression of countenance. The duke was of course a little annoyed at such an unceremonious interruption, and, looking up, he asked, "Who are you?" "I am Dionysius," was the singular answer. "Well, what do you want?" "Your life," "My life?" "Yes; I am sent to kill you." "Very odd," said the duke, sitting back and calmly gazing at the intruder. "Not at all, for I am Dionysius," said the stranger, "and I must put you to death." "Are you obliged to perform the duty to-day?" asked the commander-in-chief. "I am very busy just now and have a large number of letters to write. It would be very inconvenient to-day." The visitor looked hard during a moment's pause. "Call again," continued the duke, "or write and make an appointment." "You'll be ready?" "Without fail," was the reply. The maniac, awed doubtless by the stern old soldier, backed out of the room without further words and half an hour later was safe in bedlam.—London Graphic.

Sir Ernest Shackleton Thinks Spitzbergen a Good Health Resort.
Sir Ernest Shackleton, who got nearer to the South Pole than any other explorer, has declared his intention of visiting Spitzbergen this summer. He further voices the opinion that it would be a good thing if a sanatorium for consumptives could be established in the polar regions. A two months' stay amid the ice and snow of Spitzbergen would do wonders for a person suffering from lung and chest troubles, declares Sir Ernest. He points out that Arctic air is absolutely pure and beneficial to all chest complaints.

Bad Colds
Some colds are worse than others, but they are all bad. Do not neglect them. Treat promptly, vigorously. First of all, ask your doctor about taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Then do as he says.

Whooping Cough
Vapo-Resolene
A simple, safe and effective treatment for bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, asthma, colds, influenza, etc. It soothes the inflamed membrane, loosens the phlegm, and relieves the cough. It is a powerful expectorant and a safe and effective remedy for all respiratory troubles. Sold in bottles with descriptive booklet.

Hr. Grace Notes.

Messrs. R. D. McRae & Sons, schr. Clara, Capt. W. Tetman, put in to Transbay on Saturday on her way here from the Mediterranean. Capt. Tetman must have had a tough time making the coast with such hard weather. The sudden change of wind from S. W. to N. W. at about 2 p.m. on Friday gave us quite a squall in which several schooners moored in the harbor were driven from their anchors and were only secured after much difficulty. The ferry also received some damage in the squall. The heavy downpour of rain on Saturday night took away nearly all the snow, leaving nothing but a coating of ice on our streets and lanes, making walking very dangerous indeed. The Please U Theatre was well patronized on Saturday night when Grand Falls and other very interesting pictures were shown. This company deserves to be patronized for their endeavors to give us cheap entertainments, at the same time making sure to have them instructive and good in everything particular. We hear they are now making arrangements to get a troupe here to play during Easter week. Their efforts will no doubt be appreciated by the public. Mrs. Jas. D. Munn was very ill yesterday, suffering from an attack of pleurisy, but we are glad to hear she is much improved to-day. Dr. Charles Cron, lately of Broad Coxe, B.D.V. district, has decided to settle down here in his native town to practice his profession. We wish Dr. Cron much success in his practice. Another old and well known citizen passed away this morning in the person of Mr. Denis Shea. Mr. Shea had reached the advanced age of 92 years, and was quite hearty until a couple of weeks ago. A man of very pleasant disposition, Mr. Shea was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. His funeral takes place on Wednesday. Another case of diphtheria has developed at Bristol's Hope in a house already under quarantine. The St. John's train, due at 11 Friday night, did not reach the station till nearly 2 o'clock on Saturday morning. A young man who is compelled to go to Labrador and other places during the summer, thinks much good would result if some thoughtful persons would start a night school during the winter months. In a conversation with us on Water Street a few nights ago, he pointed to the new Public Building and said: "There is a building up there, well heated, with plenty of spare room, and no doubt if Sir Edward Morris was asked he would give permission to use a room for the purpose. There certainly would be some young men in town willing to sacrifice a few hours a week to instruct those who are hungering for knowledge, and who would then be fitted to take better positions on going abroad than they otherwise could." This certainly is worthy of consideration, and possibly some person will take the matter up. CORRESPONDENT. Harbor Grace, Jan. 23, '11.

A Fish Out of Water.

Many people think that fish when taken out of the water die because air has a fatal effect on them. The real reason, however, is that their delicate gill filaments or membranes become dry and stick together, so that no air can pass between them. Thus they lose the power to utilize necessary oxygen, and the circulation of their blood stops. The painful gapping of a fish out of water is nature's effort to free the passages through the filaments.
