CREDIT TO AMERICA.

LONDON, Sept. 10.
Field Marshal Haig's historic order, issued to-day, set beside his famous "back to the wall" order of six months ago, pointedly marks the end of one of the most critical periods in British history. That the country has triumphantly issued from that dark period is ungrudgingly and gratefully attributed to the timely assistance given by the American nation, not only in the field of arms, but also in the economic field. It is universally felt that Field Marshal Haig's order marks the beginning of a new period in the world struggle to which the nation is able to look forward with hope and confidence. There is growing evidence that the enemy will withdraw to the Hindenburg line and try to make his stand there and begin a new phase of its defensive warfare.

THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, Sept. 10. (By the A.P.)

Amazing feats by British airmen during the recent fighting may now be mentioned. After driving down in flames one of two enemy two-seaters, a British scout had engine failure which compelled him to spin down. As the machine touched the ground, a German fired his pistol at the pilot from fifteen yards, puncturing the gas tank. At that moment the engine picked up sufficiently to carry the pilot to the rear of the British lines where he was forced to come down again. Being under heavy fire he removed the gunlocks and sights and all his instruments before abandoning his machine which could not be saved. A pilot and observer returning their machine from a bombing raid, fell behind their formation because of engine trouble and were attacked by fockers. The elevator controls were immediately shot away and the observer was badly wounded, but he continued to fight and shot down one focker in flames and sent another crashing out of control. By this time all the gasoline tanks had been shot through and the engine hit in several places. All the instruments on the dashboard were smashed by enemy bullets. Both rear guns were jammed and the observer was bleeding badly. The pilot succeeded in getting his machine into a dive and went on through the airlock and reached the British lines. The gallant observer was found to have been wounded ten times during the fight. Attacked by a squadron of enemy airplanes a lone British scout spun downward, but on the way saw that only one of the enemy was following him, so he came suddenly out of the spin just above a grove of trees and caught the enemy machine crossing in front of him and shot it to the earth where it burst in flames. There were many stories of British airmen swooping back and forth over the German batteries, playing their guns on the enemy until these guns were completely silenced. One report winds up by saying that a scout machine crossed a battery position several times later but was not fired upon, all the gunners apparently having been killed. Such tactics as these aided materially in making the recent British victory possible. One British scout sailed over an enemy sausage, made a dive and finished off two sentry planes, then fired on the sausage which was being hauled down and finally wound up the performance by dropping two bombs squarely on the which used in raising and lowering the balloon.

According to an official despatch from France news has been received in Paris from Teheran, Persia, confirming reports of the murder of Christians by the Turks.

GERMAN SOLDIERS MUTINY.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 11.
A German regiment, the 25th, mentioned at Cologne on August 21st, according to the "Telegraph". An eyewitness of the incident says that the soldiers, on being ordered to leave Cologne, for the Western front, refused to board a train. Another regiment was then ordered to force the refractory troops to enter the car, but they refused to fire on their comrades. A detachment of the Home Defence Guard composed of youth, was then ordered to undertake the task, and a fight followed, in which 11 boys of the Defence Guard were killed and many others were wounded.

SLAUGHTER IN PETROGRAD.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.
Word reached here to-day from an European source that reports there said Petrograd was in flames in many places, and that indiscriminate slaughter of citizens, pillaging and riots were taking place in all parts of the city. According to these reports, there is no semblance of law, or police or military regulations.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 11.
The German socialist party and trade unions sent a communication to Chancellor Von Hertling recently, pointing out the growing dissatisfaction among the people because of insufficient food. In the communication, which was published in the socialist newspaper, Vorwaerts, on Monday, the conditions are characterized as critical.

MORE ALLIED TROOPS NEEDED.

ARCHANGEL, Sept. 11.
(By the A.P.)—More allied troops are urgently needed in Russia if the Allied campaign in Northern Russia is to be carried to a success, is the opinion of virtually every officer and civilian observer here.

NO PASSENGERS LOST.

MONTREAL, Sept. 11.
The following is from New York: The news of the loss of the Missanable was confirmed this afternoon by the Canadian Pacific Ocean Steamship Company. The steamer sailed from a British port on Sept. 8th with 19 soldiers and a number of passengers. She was torpedoed on Sept. 9th. It is believed by the Company none of the passengers were lost.

ANGLICAN SYNOD OPENS TO-DAY IN TORONTO.

TORONTO, Sept. 11.
Anglicans are by no means agreed on the question of the revised Book of Common Prayer, which is the most important matter that will come up for consideration at the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada, which opens its triennial session here to-morrow. Three years ago the Revised Book was tentatively accepted and submitted to the Diocese for consideration. Three years' probation has brought it into popular approval. There are those who would postpone its approval further, and there are others who would hold it over until after the war. A resolution from the Diocese of Montreal on the "indissolubility of marriage," which is to come up, is as follows: "That in view of the grave dangers which will inevitably result should the proposed alterations in the English marriage law at present standing in the name of Sir A. Conan Doyle be put into effect, the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada be respectfully petitioned to reaffirm the Church's belief in the indissolubility of Holy Marriage and her determination to resist any attempt to facilitate divorce and remarriage, and that a copy of such re-affirmation be forwarded to the Mother Church of England."

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS ESTABLISHED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.
Contact has been established by the Russian Embassy here with the newly organized independent Governments in Northern Russia and Siberia. Ambassador Bakhmeteff, who long ago repudiated the Bolshevik regime, is recognized by the Government as the official representative of the Russian people in the United States, and the new governments which are co-operating with American and Allied forces therefore have a spokesman in Washington. From the Government of the north at Archangel the embassy to-day received an encouraging despatch telling of activities there in co-operation with the Allies and of the purpose of the new Government to set up again a great and undivisible Russia.

AMERICAN TROOPS LAND AT ARCHANGEL.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.
American troops have landed at Archangel to assist the other Allied forces there in their campaign for the re-establishment of order in Northern Russia. This announcement was authorized by General March, Chief of Staff to-night. For military reasons the number of soldiers landing was not revealed, nor was it made clear from whence they had embarked. It was assumed, however, that the soldiers had been sent from English camps, where Americans are training.

FRENCH CAPTURE TRAVREY.

PARIS, Sept. 11.
The village of Travrey near the southern end of the main Hindenburg line, has been captured by the French, according to reports received here. If the French can hold this town, the important enemy position at La Fare, a northerly defence of the St. Gobain Massif, two miles south of Travrey, will be virtually outflanked.

MASSACRE AND FLAMES IN PETROGRAD.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.
A despatch from the American Legation at Christiania to-day, said reliable information had reached there that Petrograd was burning in twelve different places, and that there was indescribable massacre of people in the streets.

TROOPSHIP TORPEDOED: NO CASUALTIES.

LONDON, Sept. 11.
A troopship with 2,800 American soldiers on board, has been torpedoed. All hands were saved. The troopship was beached. To save time, instead of launching the boats, they clambered down ropes to destroyers which swarmed around the stricken vessel and came close alongside.

MEAT GOES UP.

LONDON, Sept. 11.
The Food Controller has announced that the retail price of meat will be increased two pence a pound after Sept. 22nd. The announcement explains that the increase is necessary chiefly because of the heavier cost of imported meats from the States and the rise of freight rates.
