

4 Unusual Economy Events for Next Week Commencing Monday Morning

Costs and Former Selling Prices are utterly disregarded. Every Customer will be more than satisfied. The wise and shrewd money-savers are coming here Monday and throughout next week from all directions—and no wonder—for these goods are offered, in a good many cases, at less than Pre-War Prices.

If they seem unusual bargains, remember that this is an unusual store. Our Policy is to attract Customers with Real Offerings rather than pursue them.

DON'T DELAY—COME AT YOUR EARLIEST.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

IS BRITAIN AFRAID OF IRELAND?
DUBLIN, May 27. That the destruction of Dublin Custom House was a military operation, ordered by Daily Express, the statement made to-night by an Irish bulletin. It describes the operation as "a complete success." The bulletin claims the destruction of Custom House reduces the most important branch of the Civil Government in Ireland to virtual impotence. It expresses regret over the destruction of a fine building, but says "the lives of four million of our people are a more sacred charge than any architectural masterpiece."

BY ORDER OF REPUBLICANS.
DUBLIN, May 27. Fire brigades were still playing streams of water on the ruins of the Custom House to-day. Barricades are being erected, and the area is guarded by a large body of troops. Stories have been circulated of how a party of Sinn Féiners, trapped in the burning building during Wednesday's conflict, made their way to vaults, from where, at midnight, a number crept steadily out, and made their escape. Another group of men, it is claimed, left the building this morning.

ELECTION FIGURES.
BELFAST, May 27. The unofficial count of votes, cast in Tuesday's elections in the six Northern counties of Antrim, Armagh, Down, Fermanagh, Londonderry and Tyrone, shows that Unionists received 341,250 votes, Sinn Féiners 103,516 and Nationalists 60,752, and Independent Laborites 4,001. There is to be added to the Unionist vote 4,000 university voters, whose ballots will be counted on Saturday. These figures would indicate that the Nationalist-Sinn Féin combination should, in view of the proportion of their supporters, have about twenty members in the new Parliament to the Unionists 33, although it is considered probable that Unionist representation may reach 41. The fact that Joseph Devlin, Nationalist leader, must either resign his seat for West Belfast or Antrim, possibly will add to the Unionist count, as it is believed almost certain that a Unionist will be chosen for whichever seat he resigns. Two surprises of the voting were the big poll of Arthur Griffith, founder of Sinn Féin organization in Tyrone and Fermanagh, where he received more than 20,000 votes above the first Unionist and a majority of more than 12,000 votes, which Sir James Craig had over Eamonn De Valera.

AGREEMENT REACHED.
WASHINGTON, May 27. An agreement on wages and working conditions was reached to-night between representatives of Marine Engineers Association and Chairman Benson, of the United States Shipping Board, in the controversy which has threatened to tie up American shipping. The terms will be submitted to local unions Sunday for ratification.

"TOMMY" ON THE JOB.
OPPELN, May 27. The vanguard of British troops from the Rhine, who supplemented by airplanes and tanks, are expected to assist in re-establishing order here, arrived to-night. In British headquarters it was said that this number would be supplemented, if necessary, by sufficient reinforcements to suppress Polish insurgents, "no matter how many thousands are required."
