THE AURORA IS NOT LOST AND NO ANXIETY YET

There is No Great Fear About Newfoundland Vessel.

St. John's, Nfld., April 27.—A report brought to the city by the sailing steamer, Pacific, that the Aurora, another vessel of the fleet, with a crew of 18 men, has not been seen since the first of the month, is not regarded by the Aurora's owners, C. T. Bowring & company, limited, with alarm. They expected their vessel would return to port by next Monday. They said that she was a staunch ship and that ice conditions this season had been more favorable than for many years.

Captain Abraham Keane, commander of the Aurora for eight years, said that the Aurora is one of the best ships in the sealing industry. He did not fear for her safety.

Another expert fisherman who expressed no alarm for the safety of the Aurora is Hon. Archibald Macdonald, minister of marine and fisheries in the Newfoundland cabinet.

He considered that the ice conditions were so favorable that no mishap could befall the vessel. The Aurora was not uncommon for the sealing vessels to be unreported for three or four weeks. The steamer Kite, which arrived on Sunday, was unreported for 35 days.

THE STEEL COMPANY ABLE TO INCREASE DIVIDENDS

The Action of the Company in Line With Popular Expectations.

New York, April 27.—At the quarterly meeting of the United States Steel Corporation today, the directors declared a regular dividend of 1-4 per cent on the common shares, thereby increasing the rate from 4 per cent to 5 per cent a year.

In a statement to the directors, Chairman Gary announced that any additional disbursements hereafter made on the common stock will take the form of extra dividends.

The action of the directors was in line with popular expectations, although the course of steel common in the late season market seemed to inject some uncertainty on this point.

Earnings for the quarter ending March 31 last were $35,615,787, with net returns of $21,291,244.

These figures are likely to cause some disappointment, as conservative forecasters had fixed recess returns at not less than $20,000,000.

Comparison with the first quarter of 1909, when an open market, with resultant cuts in prices, prevailed, shows a marked increase in earnings and business on hand.

Gross returns for this year's first quarter are $4,669,608 greater than those for the corresponding quarter of last year, while net earnings are larger by $1,241,825.

Unfilled orders on hand on March 31 aggregated 5,402,315 tons, against 3,542,595 tons at the end of the last year's first quarter.

The usual quarterly dividend of 1-4 per cent on the preferred shares, payable May 28, was declared.

The common dividend is payable June 23.

BAD FLOODS CAUSED BY CLOUDBURST IN NEW YORK

Three Feet of Water Dashed in at the Middle of the Night.

Rochester, N. Y., April 27.—A special from Hornell, N. Y., says that a cloud burst in that section last night has caused one of the most disastrous floods in the Canistota river valley.

North Hornell has water three feet deep in the streets. In the middle of the night the fire department was called out to rescue families.

HINDOOS ARRIVE IN CALIFORNIA

East Indians Banned by New Regulations for Entry into Canada.

San Francisco, April 27.—Thirty more East Indians, most of whom are Sikhs, arrived yesterday on the Clatsop and are now at the Angel Island immigration station, waiting to be admitted to the United States.

The Hindoos, like the large bands who have recently arrived on the Pacific coast, are unskilled laborers. Many of them will go into Oregon and Washington, where they are to be employed by big manufacturing corporations.

The arrival of the Hindoos has stirred up leaders of labor unions in California, and a strong protest is being made against their admittance to America.

Recently the Asiatic Exclusion league passed resolutions in which it was asserted that America would be facing another Asiatic problem unless immediate steps were taken to stop the ever-increasing flow of immigrants from India.

LIONS AT A DISCOUNT

Prices at a Recent Animal Auction in Paris Were Low

At the sale of the famous menagerie of the late M. Blot, at the Hotel de Clugny, the bidding was by no means spirited, and the animals themselves seemed to share the general apathy as to their future. The prices were considered by the cognoscenti to be ridiculously low, and it would seem that lion taming is at a discount. The best group of performers, comprising the lion Pluto and the two Honesses Pele and Cora, went for $140 in spite of the mimic savagery of the king of beasts and the pretended spiteful clappings of Madame Cora. Five young lionesses, who played with each other like huge kittens, in spite of being near full grown, and who lay blinking and purring side by side in a cage hardly large enough to hold them, were sold for $40, and Lily, the tigress, brought in only $24.

Two magnificent Siberian wolves were practically given away for $7 1/2, less than one of their furs would fetch, and Romeo, a little black bear, was knocked down for $11, in spite of his many comical accomplishments and his ability to drink from a bottle.

The friendly lion beast seemed to enjoy the crowd, which indulged his liking for being talked to, and he nuzzled and allowed his back to be scratched or his paw to be shaken by anybody who liked. A polar bear brought $32, and Miss Mignonette, a penguin with only three legs, was bought for $14 1/2, or nine times the price paid for a handsome, but rather sulky, male puma, whose figure of 35 shillings was the lowest recorded, being beaten by the 53 shillings bid for two little female monkeys. All the beasts, except, perhaps, the little bear, were in magnificent coat and condition, and must have been rare bargains to the purchasers.

KAISER NOW EFFACES HIMSELF IN POLITICS

How the Emperor Keeps Plunge He Made to His Subjects.

Berlin, April 27.—The leading feature of the present political situation in Germany is the complete and remarkable self-effacement of the Kaiser, which has been evident from the very beginning of the heated controversy now proceeding in regard to the franchise question in Prussia. The Kaiser, formerly the most prominent controversial politician in his country, has disappeared from party politics, and after thrusting himself into the very forefront of all current public disputes and faction rivalries for two decades, William II has abandoned the habits and customs of a lifetime, and has enveloped himself in an impenetrable reserve.

The Kaiser's present reserve stands in such striking contrast to the freedom with which he previously plunged headlong into the strife of party politics that the whole character and personality of his imperial majesty seems to have changed within the last 18 months. From the beginning of his reign in 1888 till 1908 the Kaiser delivered public speeches upon almost every subject under the sun, and many of his utterances dealt with questions both of home and foreign policy.

His attitudes in his own country, he criticized others, he asserted his views on many questions of German and Prussian domestic affairs with powerful emphasis, so that for twenty years he was the central figure in many heated controversies.

MORE TROUBLE IN TURKEY GOVERNMENT SENDS TROOPS

The Albanian Risings in Those Parts Have Become Serious

Constantinople, April 27.—The Albanian risings have again become serious and the government has decided to dispatch two brigades of reinforcements, equal to sixteen full battalions, to the affected districts from Smyrna and Salonika. Later reports say several thousand Albanians attacked eight Turkish battalions near Shkumbin, Northern Albania, and successfully overran the government troops.

The capture of the town of Dujia Pass. The Albanians then captured Kachanik Pass and seized a military train conveyed by 1,500 Turkish soldiers who were disarmed and sent back to Uskub. The capture of Kachanik endangers communication with Uskub and threatens the complete isolation of the Turkish army in Kosovo plain in Upper Albania. The Albanians are displaying such skill as to lead to the belief here that their leaders probably include some of the members of the old bodyguard of the deposed Sultan Abdul Hamid. Unconfirmed reports make reference to heavy casualties in the fighting.

Had Given Up All Hope of Living.

Heart Trouble Cured by Miller's Heart and Nerve Pills

Mrs. Andrew Savoy, Grattan's, N.B., writes:—In the year 1905 I was taken sick and did not think I could live any length of time. My trouble was with my heart and people told me that nothing could be done for a case like mine. I consulted the very best doctors, but they could do me no good. For seven weeks I could hardly cross the floor. I had no pain, but was so weak nobody in the world can believe how I felt. I had given up all hopes of living and had given my little girl to my sister-in-law.

"One day a friend came to see me, and calling me by name, said, 'Lizzie, if I were you I would try a dose of Miller's Heart and Nerve Pills as they are good for heart trouble.' My husband got me a box, but I wasn't feeling any better, and I said, 'But on the fourth day my husband said, 'I believe those pills are doing you good. I was able to say, 'Yes, I feel a good deal better this morning.' He said, 'Well, I will get you another box right away.' I took two boxes and three doses out of it, and now I am perfectly well and have not been sick since then."

"I will never be without them in my home for God knows if it had not been for Miller's Heart and Nerve Pills, I would not have been alive now."

Price, 50 cents per box, 3 boxes $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millum Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HAPPY DAYS FOR PETE THE YOUNG ALLIGATOR

He Glories in the Sunshine in His Home at the Fire Hall

These are happy days for "Pete," the pet baby alligator of Chief Smart of the fire department. While everybody else in town was sweltering around in the heat yesterday, wiping away the perspiration with their handkerchiefs and wishing Alberta was not quite so sunny, "Pete" was having the time of his life.

In his little tank out in front of the fire headquarters building, he just seemed to bask in the glare of the sun, but he showed more signs of happiness than he ever has since in captivity.

"This is fine," he said in his cute little baby alligator language to Chief Smart, who says he understands him. It probably reminded him of his late home in Florida, and "Pete" is certainly a long way from home. But he is getting to be a spoiled baby. Too much pampering by the firemen. When he got tired of feeding on little chunks of porthouse steak, "Pete" was fed flies. He preferred 'em alive, so the firemen were tried to catch them alive for him as much as possible. They have captured every fly within a block of fire headquarters, and the surface of the tank is black with the insects, some alive more dead than others. He has more than he can eat, and that's bad for any baby.

BEAR MANGLED KEEPER IN THE NEW YORK PARK ZOO

There Was a Sensational Battle—Man Badly Hurt.

New York, N.Y., April 27.—With his body badly mangled by teeth and claws and his left arm almost torn from its socket, Richard Spicer, a keeper at the Bronx Park Zoo, was rescued unconscious this afternoon from the bear pit, after a desperate struggle with an angry bear. He was removed to a hospital in a serious condition after a hard fight with the animal. Patcha, a huge brown Russian bear, which had always been considered mild and tame, became angered when being locked into a box, and trundled across the park from her winter quarters to the pit. In the pit when Spicer attempted to make her sit up and pose for a picture with her cubs she sprang upon him, dealing him a terrific blow with her paw. She then seized him by the arm and dragged him into the den, clawing and mauling him. Sanborn grabbed an iron bar and rushed to rescue Spicer, who was unconscious. Patcha turned on him, but the photographer managed to fight her off with the bar. His screams and the cries of a hundred spectators brought other attendants, who beat off the bear and rescued the imperiled men.

How Prisoner Escaped

Trenton, N.J., April 27.—John Aitkens, a prisoner, escaped from the Jersey State prison by sawing the bars in the windows of the fire room, where he was employed, and scaling the outer wall. This is Aitkens' third term in the institution. He was sentenced in 1909 from Union County to serve 23 years on the charge of murder.

MAKES PARENTS PAY SMALL RANSOM FOR RETURN

Young Woman in Denver Has New Plan for Bliking Mothers

Denver, Col., April 28.—A young woman about eighteen years old has made a practice here of temporarily kidnapping young children, returning them to their mothers later in the day, and charging a small amount of money for services rendered.

This was brought to the attention of the police today by Mrs. J. C. Harris, of 2424 Welton street, one of her victims. Mrs. Harris' three-year-old son, Edward, disappeared from the front yard of the Harris home at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The police were notified and asked to look for the lad, but he could not be found.

About noon he was taken back home by a nicely dressed young woman, who proceeded to collect 50 cents from Mrs. Harris for restoring the child. She said, "I am Chief of Police Armstrong's daughter. It is my special business to recover lost children, and I make a nominal charge of 50 cents for my services."

"If your little son ever stays away from home again just notify me and I will find him for you. You can reach me by calling this number," and she handed Mrs. Harris a card bearing a telephone number written in pencil. Then she accepted 50 cents from Mrs. Harris and departed.

Mrs. Harris grew suspicious and reported the matter to the police.

Premier Murray Very Ill

Halifax, April 27.—Hon. George H. Murray, premier of Nova Scotia, is seriously ill. He was removed to the Victoria General Hospital today for an operation which was performed this afternoon, and was rendered necessary by the blocking of an artery in the left leg. The limb had become very much swollen, and Mr. Murray suffered intense pain. The operation consisted of a slight incision to relieve the swelling. It afforded some ease, but the surgeon reported tonight that the condition of the leg gives but slight hope of their being able to save the limb, which will likely have to be amputated below the knee. They will know definitely tomorrow. The blocking of the artery was first observed on Sunday night. Hon. Mr. Murray had been ill for two weeks previous with grippe.
