JOTTINGS FROM NEAR-BY PLACES

LUCAN.

Lucan, Oct. 15.—The annual parochial thanksgiving services of Holy Trinity Church, Lucan, were held on Sunday last. The day was one of double thanksgiving, for it was the first occasion on which the rector, Rev. H. A. Thomas, was able to take duty since his recent protracted illness. Willing and skillful hands had adorned the edifice with garlands and flowers in a beautiful and chaste style, highly appropriate to the event. The choir, re-entitled by the kind friends from the choir of the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches, led the service of praise. Especially worthy of commendation was the number in the evening, sung by a quartet, consisting of Messrs. Webb and Shipley and Messrs. Derry and Stewart. The Rev. John Bopp, M.A., B.D., T.C.D., rector of Parkhill, preached a very forceful and suitable sermon, that of the morning being based upon Revelation xiv., 14-16—"The Son of Man. Reaping the Harvest of the Earth." The evening sermon was from Psalms cxlv., 10—"All Thy Works Shall Praise Thee, O Lord; and Thy Saints Shall Bless Thee." Both sermons were listened to with great profit by congregations which crowded the church. The free-will offerings amounted to a considerable sum, which will be further increased by those of members unavoidably absent.

OCTOBER.
Tis a banner of gold and scarlet
October flings to the breeze,
And none other of all the twelve months
Can boast such colors as these.

For the trees that through all the summer
Have been dressed in the darkest green,
Now hanging with red and yellow
In most gorgeous gowns are seen.

The golden red flames by the roadside
And over the fences old,
Till each meadow is fast becoming
The Field of the Cloth of Gold.

And even the sun in his setting,
When he slowly sinks from view,
And looks over the world of color,
Has caught the golden hue. —A. S.

AS OTHERS SAW US.
Montreal Star: The reception of the royal visitors at London was the feature of the afternoon. Immense crowds lined the streets in the vicinity of the station, and the duke and duchess when they appeared received a tremendous ovation from the thriving London of the new world. The duke and duchess were immediately escorted to the beautiful pavilion in Victoria Park, where the address of welcome was read to the royal visitors by the mayor. The Indian chiefs of the Muncey nation also presented an address. After the presentation of the addresses the duke presented colors to the Seventh Fusiliers. The duchess was presented with a magnificent bouquet of roses by two little girls, who were most thoughtfully received by her royal highness. The whole proceedings lasted a little over an hour, but London's welcome will go down as one of the most picturesque in the whole Canadian tour. The pavilion for the reception of the royal guests was in the center of the park, with the maple trees clothed in their glorious autumnal tints. But through this greenery peered thousands of eager eyes, only intent on getting a glimpse of the future king. The royal pavilion was arranged as a drawing-room. It had handsome furniture and beautiful floral decorations. The broad red, white and blue streamers from the top of the canopy gave a quaint curtain-like effect as they waved gently to and fro in the breeze. It was a Canadian autumn scene, and as the duke and duchess left the richly carpeted steps of the pavilion, they returned to the train a great cheer went up from the crowd.

Lt.-Col. Smith Receives Flattering Letter From Duke's A. D. C.

H. R. H. Commended Excellence of Arrangements and Regiment's Smart Appearance.

Lieut.-Col. A. M. Smith, commanding the 7th Regiment, yesterday received the following letter, which is a flattering evidence both of the excellent showing made by the regiment in their recent appearances before the royal visitors, and of the interest taken in the corps by his highness the duke:

"Queen's Royal, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Oct. 14, 1901.
"Dear Sir—I am commanded by his Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and York to express to you his great pleasure at all the arrangements in connection with his recent visit to London, and especially those in connection with the presentation of colors to the regiment under your command, at which, he said, everyone seemed to have done and did it without hesitation in the proper time and place. The 7th Regiment Fusiliers looked remarkably smart, especially considering their experiences of the three previous days. Yours truly,

Major, A. D. C.
"Lieut.-Col. A. M. Smith, commanding, 7th Fusiliers, London, Ont."

BOXES OF GOLD

Sent for Letters About Grape-Nuts.

330 boxes of gold and greenbacks will be sent to persons writing interesting and truthful letters about the good that has been done them by the use of Grape-Nuts food.

10 little boxes, each containing a $10 gold piece, will be sent to the 10 writers of the most interesting letters.

20 boxes, each containing a $5 gold piece, to the 20 next most interesting letters, and a 41 greenback will go to each of the 300 next best. A committee of three, not members of the Postum Company, will make decision between Oct. 1 and 10, 1901.

Write plain, sensible letters, giving detailed facts of ill-health caused from improper food and explain the improvement, the gain in strength, in weight, or in brain power after using Grape-Nuts food.

It is a profound fact that most ailments of humanity come from improper and non-nourishing food, such as white bread, hot biscuit, starchy and uncooked cereals, etc.

A change to perfectly cooked, pre-digested food like Grape-Nuts scientifically made and containing exactly the elements nature requires for building the delicate and wonderful cells of brain and body, will quickly change a half-sick person to a well person.

Food, good food, is Nature's strongest weapon of defense.

Include in letter the true names and addresses, carefully written, of 20 persons, not well known to whom we can write regarding the food cure by Grape-Nuts.

Almost every one interested in pure food is willing to have his or her name appear in the papers for such help as they may offer the human race. A request, however, to omit names will be respected. Try for one equal show. Don't write poetry, but just honest and interesting facts about the good you have obtained from the pure food Grape-Nuts. A man or woman has found a true way to get well and keep well, it should be a pleasure to stretch a helping hand to humanity, by telling the facts.

Write your name and address plainly on letter and mail promptly to the Postum Cereal Co. Limited, Battle Creek, Mich.

PROMOTED OFFICIAL IS BANQUETED

Pleasing Function at City Hotel Last Night.

C. P. R. Employees Honor Former Supt. Thomas Williams.

Officials and Trainmen Gather From All Points on Toronto-Windsor Division.

Over three score guests gathered in the spacious dining-room of the City Hotel last night to do honor to Mr. Thomas Williams, formerly superintendent of the Toronto-Windsor division of the C. P. R., but promoted five months ago to the more important position of general superintendent of the Lake Superior division, with headquarters at North Bay. The banquet was given by the C. P. R. employees of the division, as a token of the regret with which they had viewed his departure, while congratulating him heartily upon his promotion. Officials and employees of the company from London, Toronto and Windsor and other points in the division were present, with other representative citizens. The banquet was in every sense a success, and one which must prove most gratifying to Mr. Williams, as evidencing the esteem in which he is held among all branches of the service.

Those seated at the table of honor were: Peter McDonald, chairman; Thomas Williams, the guest of the evening; A. H. Notman, district passenger agent, Toronto; F. P. Brady, superintendent, Toronto; A. Price, superintendent, Toronto; D. R. Bell, trainmaster, Toronto; M. H. Brown, assistant general freight agent, Toronto; Mayor Rumball, Chief W. T. Williams, Police Magistrate Frank Love, London; Martin N. Todd, president of Galt and Hespeler Electric Railway; E. Murphy, roadmaster, Woodstock; J. F. Toill, P. O'Leary (yard foreman), A. E. McBride, London; John Campbell, Harrietsville; D. H. Bowen, J. M. Graham, London; H. Browning, J. J. McAuliffe, Belle River; Victor Chauvin, Belle River; T. Collins, London; J. McKee, London; J. Scott, traveling engineer, Toronto; John Wilkin, London; A. Maynes, traveling engineer, Toronto; R. S. McConnell, Toronto; J. H. Bunting, Toronto; George J. Roddy, London; M. Andrus, Glenora; Ben Smith, Embro; J. S. Robinson, Thamesford; R. Scott, Woodstock; J. C. Boucher, London; J. Whitaker, Galt; J. R. Marlowe, Toronto; J. W. McIntosh, London; James Ross, London; A. C. Brown, Guelph; A. Freu, Guelph; T. J. Mahoney, London; S. Buchanan, Windsor; J. M. Daly, London; W. Fulton, London; W. McElroy, Galt; Thos. O'Hara, London; A. L. Smith, dispatcher, Toronto; George Spence, chief dispatcher, Toronto; J. R. Sprague, master mechanic, Toronto; John Stevely, London; H. P. Sharpe, London; E. Rechin, London; J. Venning, Harrietsville, and others.

Regrets at enforced absence were received from E. G. Henderson, formerly resident engineer of London, and now at Windsor; Ed Worth, Kent Bridge; E. J. Downey, Robert Gray and W. Langdon, Chatham, and James Hous-

After the generous supply of viands provided had disappeared, Mr. P. McDonald opened the toast list by proposing the health of the King, which was received with the customary honors.

With the toast of "Canada, Our Home," were coupled the names of Messrs. John Stevely, Ernest Rechin, and D. H. Bowen. Mr. Stevely, in a witty speech, spoke of the marvelous resources of the great Dominion, and referred feelingly to the way Canadians had fought and died for the empire on the South African field.

Mr. Rechin, in his response, said he thought that he himself was qualified to speak of "Canada, Our Home," as he had chosen it because he thought it a country in which any man could be happy. Though he had come from a country where happiness reigned, he would not go back, because he thought Canada the best country on earth. Mr. Bowen, in a short speech brimful of humor, enunciated the great thought that Canada was the finest country in the world, and it was made so by the C. P. R., and that the C. P. R. was made what it is by such bright, brainy, brilliant men as the guest of the evening, Mr. Williams.

In introducing the toast of "Our Guest," Chairman McDonald and Messrs. D. R. Bell, S. Buchanan, and J. J. Mahoney each paid their tribute to Mr. Williams as an official who was careful and efficient in the discharge of his duties, and considerate in his treatment of his subordinates.

In replying, Mr. Williams said he had only tried to fulfill his duty in first protecting the interests of the company and after that the interests of the men under him. He had had the hearty co-operation of every man on the division, and his work had been easy and pleasant. As a previous speaker, Mr. Bell, had aptly said, few railway men were orators, and if they were orators they were not good railway men, so he would not inflict much of a speech on the company, or they might think him not much of a railway man. Mr. Williams said he would therefore call upon one of his most faithful assistants, Mr. Peter Stewart, of St. Thomas, to reply for him. After thanking the company heartily for the honor done him, Mr. Williams resumed his seat.

Mr. Stewart, and Messrs. George Spence and J. Sprague, of Toronto, added their expressions of regret at Mr. Williams' departure and their conviction that he was destined to rise still higher in the service of the company.

Mayor Rumball, replying to the toast of the "Corporation of the City of London," expressed regret that the city, which he thought the best city in all Canada, had lost such a good citizen as Mr. Williams. His worship expressed surprise at seeing so many young men present in such a representative gathering of railway employees, and said it illustrated well the opportunities which Canada offered her sons.

The railway interests brought responses from Messrs. F. P. Brady, superintendent, Toronto; A. Price, superintendent, Toronto; E. Murphy, roadmaster, Woodstock; W. Ross, roadmaster, London; J. Scott, traveling engineer, Toronto; and A. C. Harshaw, conductor, London. Mr. Brady said he knew what the C. P. R. was. It started at one end of the Dominion and ran clear to the other. He drew attention to the feat accomplished by the C. P. R. within the past three weeks, in taking the royal party across the continent and back and delivering them to the G. T. R. at North Bay, on the very minute agreed on eight months ago, all without the slightest slip or mishap. In this, Mr. Williams, as superintendent of the Lake Superior division, had had an important part. The promotion of Mr. Williams was one meeting with the heartiest approval of every man on the division. Mr. Price spoke of Mr. Williams' associations with his subordinates, and testified to the value to them of his example and his advice.

Police Magistrate Frank Love, Chief of Police W. T. Williams and Capt. Graham ably dealt with the toast to "The Army and Navy Volunteers."

"The Commercial Interests," drew brief responses from Mr. M. N. Todd, Galt; Mr. A. Freu, Guelph; Mr. M. H. Brown, Toronto; Mr. J. M. Daly, London, and Mr. James Enright, Ingersoll.

The responses to the toast of "The Ladies" were left in the capable hands of Messrs. J. Marlowe and A. H. Notman, Detroit, and H. P. Sharpe and W. Fulton, of London.

After "The Press" and "Mine Host" had been toasted, the National Anthem brought a most pleasing function to a close.

The proceedings were pleasantly diversified by songs from Messrs. W. Colby, J. M. Daly, J. Stevely, J. P. Hill, J. W. McIntosh and J. J. Mahoney.

The banquet and reception committee, whose efforts were so largely due to the evening's success, was composed of Messrs. T. Collins, S. Buchanan, H. P. Sharpe, J. Houston, A. C. Harshaw, Wm. Fulton, T. O'Hara, J. Mahoney, J. Cushing, P. McDonald (chairman), J. Ross (secretary).

HEART DISEASE

Some Facts Regarding the Rapid Increase of Heart Trouble.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while many may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Even organic disease is incurable, but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way, also, the heart is affected by the effects of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half-digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart. The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores, and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal times will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sets by mail for 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

NETS SEIZED.

Toronto, Oct. 16.—The government patrol boat Gilphie continues to make her rounds of Georgian Bay. Capt. Mearns reports that he seized two trap nets recently at Wyckwemikong, Manitoulin Island. Scores of these nets have been captured this season by the Gilphie and they have been worth thousands of dollars. All have been destroyed at the order of the fisheries department.

Fortify the system against disease by purifying and enriching the blood—in other words, take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The man who waits for something to turn up is apt to discover that it is his turn.

UP LATE NIGHTS, endless engagements, generally run down? Take "The P. & L." Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It will tone up your system and make you feel yourself again. Made by Davis & Lawrence Company, Limited.
