A batch of information regarding the first steps taken by the R. C. Y. C., of Toronto, has been secured and will help a lot. The M. A. A. A, of Montreal, is expected to make a similar contribution.

It is reported that local harness horsemen are willing to take quite a bit of stock in the London Athletic Association, which is now being or-ganized, and that if it can be put on a sound basis an effort will ultimately be made to secure land on which a half mile track could be built. Members of the local association are dissatisfied with the treatment accorded them by the Western Fair Association, and would like to secure other quarters.

A few years ago over $4,500 was raised with the idea of building a track, but the matter was allowed to drop. A couple of men contributed a thousand dollars each, and the scheme may again be brought up. Cheap stables or sheds only would be necessary at a new track, as the followers of the game here care little about winter comests.

Glove fights at the West Side Athletic Club of New Orleans on Sundays have involved a loss of $26,500, and the club has decided to suspend opera-The promoters say the pugilists demanded so much money for their services that a financial loss was inevitable. Although the proposed bout between Papke and Capponi, scheduled for last Sunday, indicated a profit, the club decided to take no further chances and notified the principals that all bets were off.

Sam Langford's manager now say that if Jack Johnson refuses to make a match, Al Kaufman can have a fight of 20 or 45 rounds for $10,000 a side if he will cover Langford's forfeit in Boston. Kaufman can get backing for this amount for a 20-round fight with Jeffries, but not for a battle with Langford. Kaufman, however, says he will make a match with the Boston negro, and also declares that he can beat him If Kaufman and Langford are on the level they can settle their differences in a 12-round bout before the Armory Club of Boston, which is ready to stage them at any time. Jim Kaufman or Jack O'Brien, and has put $500 up to go as a side bet. Barry does not include Langford in his challenge, however, for the excellent reason that last year Sam knocked him out twice in jigtime.

The report that Jeffries may tackle Al Kubiak in a six-round bout in Philadelphia during January has revived the opinion that the boilermaker should take on several heavyweights in trial KING, THE CATSPAW MAN, AT bouts before, he meets Johnson. Kaufman, Barry, Ross, Jeannette would be suitable opponents, and by whipping all of them Big Jim would soon convince the skeptical sporting public he is recovering his old form. If Jeff and Kubiak meet and the bout is on the level, the boilermaker, if right, should score a quick knockout.

The only fence, place which could give a definite answer was Ingersoll, which was quite willing to enter such a league. four-team league is desired, and the secretary was notified to write the Mulvin. named places again to see if a more definite answer might not be obtained, and also to write to Tillson burg, St. Marys, Stratford and Chatham to see if they were able and willing to put a team in the league. It was decided to adopt royal blue and white for the official colors.

The local banks have some splendid material for a team this year, and much enthusiasm was manifest. It is earnestly hoped that the arrangements for the league may be successfully consummated, otherwise the sport such poor support last winter that it was considered useless to organize again this year. The team will likely picked from the following: F. G. williamson, F. A. Johns, R. F. A. Gilbert, G. E. Egleston, W. D. Wiseman, Joseph Basford, T. J. Robertson, "Paddy" Somerville, Eric Anderson, R. D. Boughner, "Sank" Trott, K. G. MacWhirter. Some of these were on last year's lineup, and showed class; others are new men, but have made good on teams in other towns.

WOLGAST SURPRISE ON COAST

Milwaukee Boy Opens California Fans Eyes in Twenty-Round Fight With Powell.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 2. — The easy victory of Ad Wolgast, of Milwaukee, over Lew Powell, of San Francisco, was a great surprise to local fight fans, who had been led to believe by Powell's repeated victories he was worthy to meet Bat Nelson. Powell was thought to be a clever boxer, who had much of Gans' method and style, but he failed to show a hard punch, and was unable to stop Wolgast's rushes. The Milwaukee boy rushed in close and then became an animated pin-wheel of all kinds of blows like Terry McGovern in his best days. The only credit that can be given to Powell is that he endured a terrible beating and lasting 20 rounds. He did not have a shade over Wolgast in any of the rounds. If Wolgast can develop Barry, by the way, is anxious to fight a harder punch local fans believe he will whip Nelson in 20 rounds or a finish fight. He will be heavily backed here if he secures a fight with Nelson.
