Horse Was Uninjured.

The rarest good fortune alone prevented a very serious, if not fatal, accident to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Matthews, 562 Ontario street and Master Leon Ridley, son of Mr. Robert Ridley. Elias street, at the pumphouse, Springbank, Tuesday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock.

They had driven to Springbank, and when near the pumphouse attempted to cross the street railway tracks. As they did so, Car No. 68, in charge of Motorman Andrew Pearson and Conductor Miller, crashed into

Mr. Matthews saw the car, but too late to move.

The motorman jammed on the brakes, but the buggy was struck squarely. The speed of the car was reduced considerably, but the buggy was turned over, pinning them all under it. The horse jumped to one side and escaped. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews were taken out from under the rig as quickly as possible.
