DIDN'T SEE THE GIRL IN FRITCH'S OFFICE

Strong Evidence in Favor of the Detroit Doctor Charged With Manslaughter.

Detroit, Feb. 24.-From four witnesses, three of them women, the jurors sitting in Judge Phelan's court heard parts of a story, yesterday afernoon, which, in its entirety, is intended by the defence as its strongest proof of the innocence of Dr George A. Fritch, charged with manslaughter. tered bank, payable to the order of the Honorable the Minister of Militia and Defence, for five per cent of the amount of the tender, which will be forfeited if the party making the tender decline to sign a contract when called upon to do so. If the tender be not accepted the check will be returned.

The department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

In, their attempt to show that Maybelle Millman could not have been near the office, much less the victim of treatment in the defendant's office on Aug. 27. counsel grant as true the testimony of Mrs. Joseph W. Leach, one of the state's important witnesses. That Dr. Fritch telephoned to Mrs. Leach, asked her where "Joe" was, and requested her to have her husband "call" him up as soon as he returned, is not only admitted, but was even corroborated by the witness for the defence. That Fritch on the afternoon of Aug. 27 desired the services of Joseph W. Leach and his automobile is also conceded. But instead of wanting it for the purpose of conveying Maybelle Millman's dismembered body to Ecorse Creek, the defence claims that the defendant merey wished Leach to conduct a patient who was at that time in the doctor's office to his home.

Didn't See Mabel. Mrs. Bessie Knott, a strikingly pretyoung woman, attired in a natty blue suit and smart-looking turban, supplied the strongest link in the testimony that the defence offered. The witness, who now lives at 123 Holden avenue, but who says 436 Bewick avenue was her address at the tables, amination by Attorney Lodge she testichairs, dressers, sideboard, refrigerator, bedding, tools, dishes, etc. Terms cash.
