Make Arrangement With Canada.

Docton, Jan. 32—10. the eve of the convening of the Legislature, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, in an address at Symphony Hall, decladed his layears proof in the Senator, as a pick senator Lodge, address was in the nature of an answer to a long antagonistic companion to the convening of the Logislature, Senator Lodge, address was in the nature of an answer to a long antagonistic companion means the convening of the Conservative press, to the effect that Hon-Mackenzes King's bill by five for the Indian Lodge address was in the nature of an answer to a long antagonistic companion means the convening of the constant of the on Canadaian products without an equivalent from Canada would compel us under the favored nation clause existing in more than 30 treaties to lower or remove those same duties on the same products from practically every country in the world. This would give Canada no preference and no advantage in our markets and would be of no benefit to us.

"I have sought and now desire a reciprocity arrangement with Canada which will be a benefit to both countries, which will charge our trade with each other, especially in the trade of New England, and swell the commerce of the port of Boston."

Noblewoman Finds In Philanthropy a Relief From Ennui.

London, Jan. 3.—The death is all-nounced of Mrs. Anna Maria Druce, the original claimant in the famous case in connection with the Portland seates. It will be remembered that Mrs. Druce asserted that the fifth Duke of Portland had a dual existence and that while he spent a part of his life at Weibeck Abbey, he also carried on business as Thomas Charles Druce at a Baker street bazaar.

The Druce claimants asserted that the late duke in order to get rid of his other self had a mock funeral over Thomas Charles Druce. Their case, however, fell through when in the coffin, which, according to them, contained only lead, was found the body of an aged, bearded man.

IS GALLAGHER SANE?

London. Jan. 3. — "Philanthropy is the hobby of the hour," remarked the Duchess of Marlborough to a friend the other day at her creche in Bloombury. "And," she added, "there is nothing like it for helping one to pass away the time."

The Vanderbilt duchess is probably the biggest giver in London, putting in the shade all royalty. She spends at least $100,000 a year on her pet "holby," as she calls it. There are women who are far more jealous of her position as a philanthropist than they are of her social position. Some years ago were considered big givers have yeiven up the attempt to compete with the duchess because they realize with the duchance of the proposition. Some the same than the probably the bigg
