Description of the brink of submersion," said the Right Rev. George Exton Lloyal, bishop of Saskatchewan, addressing the London Rotary Club at noon Monday, "With the drastic results of 22 years of experiments with allens staring us in the face, it would be national lunacy to continue with a policy of bringing foreigners into the country.

"The only safety of the Anglo-Saxon race in Canada lies in their cohesion and the fact that they speal the one tongue, while the ST races who form the alien element are foreign to each other as they are to us, yet men in authority would offer as a solution for bard times on the rail ways, the suggestion that a million foreigners be brought in yearly from Central Europe.

"We have more aliens in Canada now than we can assimilate. British Columbia is overridden with Orientals."
