Miss Mackenzie

Real Battle.

The real battle in the third round was the struggle between those keen rivals Miss Ada Mackenzie and Mrs. Hope Gibson, which the latter won. It was a hard fight from beginning to end and was the only match of the day which went to the home green.

On the first hole both got poor drives, but recovered neatly and halved. At the second Miss Mackenzie's second shot, a brassie, was weak and Mrs. Gibson should have won the hole, but missed her putt. Miss Mackenzie, after a poor approach, shot at the third, missed a long putt and conceded the hole. On the fourth both missed putts and the hole was halved.
